Omega Year Book

happy dale rest home

Hello Readers !

I'm going to tell you a story. It is a nice little tale about an entire Omega class who went berzerk. I could'nt help it. You see, I set out to produce a quality year book. A book of style and certain flair. I thought a clown motif with an emphasis on rainbows and balloons would be just the theme to execute a classic. I mean I was shooting for the Year Book Hall of Fame in Fresno. But my vision of greatness was destroyed after the premier showing of the nuclear extravaganza, " THE DAY AFTER". The class just decided it was no use any more..They threw my brilliant idea of clown happiness and friendship right in the slop. I lost control as I watched the loonatics scream frantically, "NO THEME NO THEME". (much like Herve Valchez of Fantasy Island fame)

Once my ideas had been trashed my life became worthless. The agony of no theme is too too much for me to bear. I have gone into a lifetime vigil in a luxury trash can in the Quad. Have you ever realized the comfort of a 20,000 dollar trash can. Boy, did they spend that money WISELY. And the food! Every day Chicken Delite, Burritos and yes, THOSE nachos with the orange sauce.

So PLEASE, PLEASE, if I've made myself clear, DON'T turn the page. You'll blow up. I swear. O.K.???? There's not a single rainbow in it.

I hate "THE DAY AFTER" a lot.

Sincerely,

OPENING 1

The evolution of thoughts, ideas, and concepts beyond the grasp of your immediate frame of reference, but capable of comprehension within the realm of time. In other words — the opposite of closing.*

CLASSES . . . 17

Oh Boy Ritchie, Joanie, Howie and Potsie. Look at all those swell poodles. I heard Barbie got pinned. Yeah, but look at all those poodles. I like poodles . . . I guess poodles are the meaning of life.

SENIORS 49

Dear Mom — P.C.C. is tops. The food is great, people fantastic, food great, and scenery oooo ahh. Oh and the food — great. Boy I'm sure glad I turned down all those namby pamby Ivy League schools. Love ya. P.S. The food is great.

Sports . . . 81

Pow, Poof, Wum, Bouf, Ouch, Zowie, Bam, Kapow, Oof Sock, Got it. O.K. Holy Bat Radar Scan, Solar powered nuclear sneakers Sui-Sui. It's Sports. @#&%e&!/. It's also late.*

OF CONTENTS

ACTIVITIES 145

I bet you thought you could pick that up. Well, you can't. It's a fig newton of your imagination. So just don't eat it. O.K.? All you have to do is slap on a handy dandy pair of 3-D glasses. There to the left of you. No . . . over there. Hal I told you, you can't pick it up. It's 4:17, I'm hungry and I can't pick it up — Help . . . I can't put it down. The pen that is — but I thought I couldn't pick it up. I just wanna be home in Fresno. Mom, can you pick me up? I bet you can't.

FINE ARTS . . . 177

Well hey man you got to let those hairs blossom from the under arm pit pores. O.K? Have you ever realized the intrinsic genre of a hair follicle? It's like wow . . . It's like . . . well — . . . art. O.K?

CLUBS 207

Self-explanatory, short and to the point. In effect a real pain but looks real hot on college transcripts. I'm not sure we'd even include them except for the D&D club. I like that one. It's neat.

FACULTY . . 241

Rollin' along with the Friend ship, go west, prepster. It's a sign of the times. Go home fisleets, get out of our school. You're too short, too immature. Oh! Wait! This is faculty. GA GA!

(Bonnie Bell Wardman sits in her tiny room in the southwest corner of the top floor of the library that was named for her achievements. She is behind a small metal desk adorned with dried flowers. She is cataloging books. She rises. She is immense. She is the most obese example of feminine pulchritude known to man. She sits, she rises, she sits. The chair breaks asunder.)

(Two men enter. They are dressed entirely in African ceremonial robes. They are brandishing sausages. They are hickory smoked. The sausages, I mean.)

(brandishing) You're behind on your hula-hoop payments, Bonnie! Huzza, huzza? — hands ON hips

(Bonnie rises again. She is dripping with fat. She uncannily resembles a large side of pork simmering and crackling over an open pit. The smell of hickory is in the air. The pork, I mean.)

Habba, Kabba, ba, but ga up da for I knew for saaba.
Hoola-hoop?

(She sounds uncannily like some fat person nibbling on dried flower arrangements.)

But I know for manda baba llama, huh? - with AN accent.

(still brandishing) That's no excuse, Bonnie! Hand over the styrofoam breathing tubes or we'll fill you full of protein.

(Bonnie begins to wiggle...)

Cliff notes, No-Doze, Apple pie, and Chevrolet . . . I mean Mercedes. This is La Canada High at its peak. A fast paced, high pressure, sophisticated, urbane society of intense vegetation. Yes, this incredible institution of veducation fills four mind boggling book-boogying years. To alleviate the pressure of the daily dog-eat-dog monotony (much similar to a night on the town in Fresno), many are forced to consume artificial substances including the infamous little red thing (Hot Tamale). We are at a loss for words . . . Katherines' freaking, Charlottes' sweeping, Dianes weeping and my Tab is leaking. It is hectic, HECTIC, HALP! It's too much, get me out, GET ME OUT! Take me! No more No-Doz — I'm melting — SHUCKS!

THE MAGNIFICENT FRAUD

AND CO-STARRING, the infamous Dr. Fu Man Choo (Bless You) as the deranged lover of the missing paper clip. Would he ever be normal again? All he can say is "Get Me A BUCKET"

ALSO WITH the darlings of Vaudeville, Yippy and Skippy as the possible suspects in this tragic loss of a valuable paperclip. All I ask is WHODUNNIT.

STARRING
jerry

STARRING Jerry Kloczek, winner of the Tony, Oscar, Emmy Grammy, Slammy, Bammy, Chuck and Oedipus look — alike contest '84 . . . as himself.

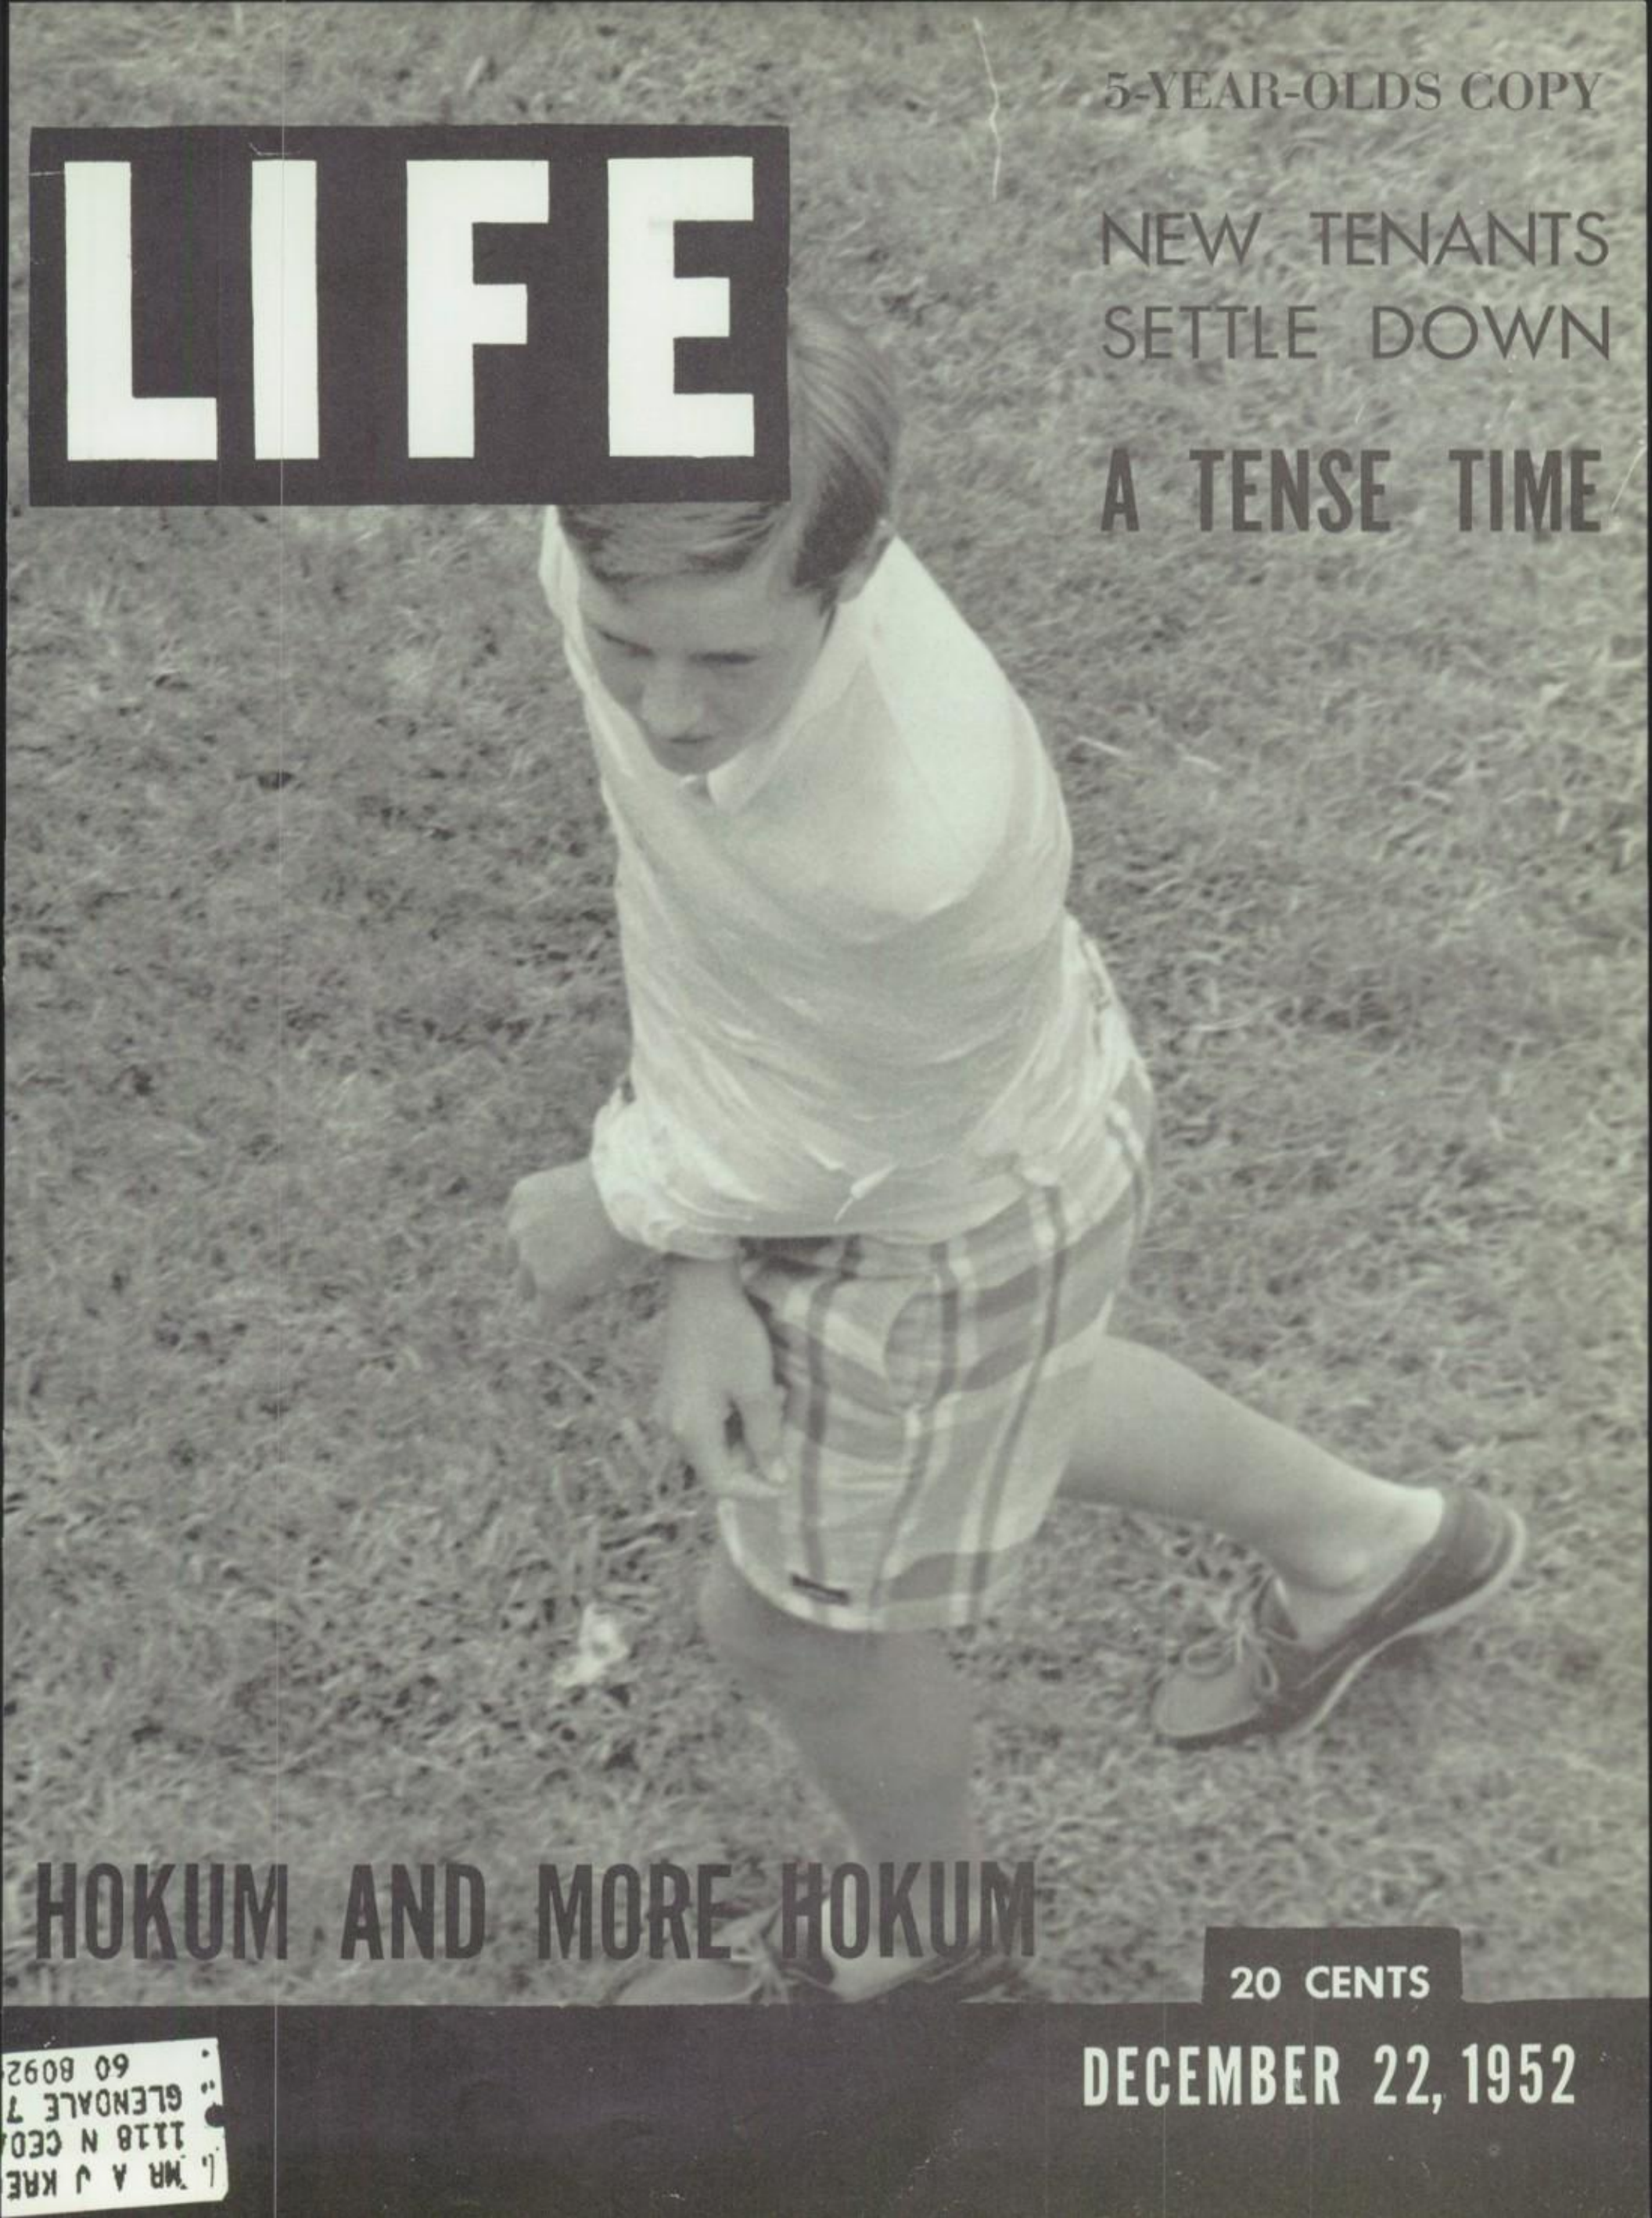

SOMEONE has stolen the paperclip molds from the U.S. department of Office Supplies. The governments' best agents are staging an all out search with the headquarters in Hawaii and in La Canada, California; but have found nothing. They are disgraced and forced to hide their faces with sunglasses and even (horribly) their own hands. Will the terror be lifted from the country? Will the embarrassed agents find their prey? Will no. 1 suspect Jerry ("The Smurk") Kloczek be proven guilty of nasty things? See The Magnificent Fraud and see the truth!

Here they are, the newly elected Junior Congressmen of America! Look how proud they are displaying arrogantly their cheap 2½ cent cigars. They are: from right to left, or they could be from left to right if you want, or wait, they could go from center to right or to left for that matter, hold on, I'm getting a little confused here, Ug, I know! If you turn the book sideways they could be up to down! Yeah! Or wait. Maybe they could be diagonal in some way. Hey! What's Diane's purse doing in this picture?

As winner's compensation for the annual Patterson Intuitive Chemical Craftsmanship Competition (PICCC), David Kaegi (shown above) and Craig Broberg (also shown above) are seen browsing through the computer designed chemical clothing at IBM clothiers in Silicon Valley, California, where it is said that the clothes there fit so well and are so advanced in technical design that they seem to be alive. Here, one of the tweed coats on the rack greets Mr. Broberg like a well-trained salesperson. This coat, along with all the other coats and pants and vests, will speak to Craig in an attempt to sell itself. This innovative is projected to reduce the number of I don't know what I can't think of anything else, I quit so die.

Imagine yourself squatting on the roof of the "cafetorium" (cafeteria or auditorium, why don't you up your mind!). You've spotted your enemy meandering 113 feet away. You pick up the nearest object, a 3 pound rock. You then notice the intensity of the molecular bonding. You bless Mr. Hansen-113 + i) 3 -EMC + (113) (3) ²³-i. This must be the velocity, including acceleration, of the rock as it approaches your victim-oops . . . I must've cancelled.

"I solemnly pledge my allegiance to the La Canada Rock Fighting Federation: My commitment to meet with fellow comrades at least twice a week to . . . have some laughs shall be fulfilled or my membership shall be denied.

Sirs:

I am happy to announce that snuffy, the groundhog you showed dining on an ice cream cone before her winning retirement (Miscallany, LIFE, Jan. 30), is with us again this spring. She appeared briefly on top of her woodpile home on March 1 but, spotting three feet of snow, went back to her nest. She reappeared several weeks later, thinner and slightly irritable from lack of food. My father was very careful not to feed her too much since she had been dormant for six months. Snuffy is still the same friendly, loving creature she was last summer.

Ken Crandall

Sirs:

I've just returned from serving 14 months in Turkey and am impressed and pleased with your timely article on that great country.

Sirs:

Margaret Bourke-White says: "Pilots tell me that Chickens and turkeys run in special terror from a helicopter . . . The pilots' theory is that the fowl associate the beating in the air with a bird of prey.

Chickens are equally disturbed by a free balloon, which is completely silent and has no moving parts. Apparently they associate the object, rather than the beating, with a bird of prey.

SOME OF THE "SECONDARY INVADERS"

Tests showed that even fifteen minutes after Listerine Antiseptic gargle bacteria on mouth and throat surfaces were reduced up to 96.7%; an hour afterward as much as 80%. Among bacteria on mouth and throat surfaces can be many of the "secondary invaders," some of which are shown at right. Stomach UPSET?

Indigestion?

Diarrhea?

Nausea?

Take Hospital Tested

Pepto-Bismol

Pepto-Bismol's special medicinal formula soothes both the irritated stomach and intestinal walls with a gentle coating action. It helps retard gas formation; calm heartburn, nausea. Hospital tests also prove it controls simple diarrhea —without constipating. No wonder Pepto-Bismol is America's leading family remedy for upset stomach!

P.S. MOTHERS! Pepto-Bismol is effective, mild, safe for children, too. They love its wonderful flavor!

1. Pepto-Bismol helps soothe in the stomach...where overdoses of soda and alkalizers may actually prolong the upset!

2. Pepto-Bismol also helps calm distress in the intestinal tract... where soda and alkalizers never help!

...and feel good again!

COMMON SENSE TIPS ON DOG CARE

by HENRY GAINES

How would your dog prepare his own meal?

If your dog had his way, maybe you'd find him adding one part of liquid to three parts of Gaines Meal. If he's like most dogs he'd think that made a mighty tempting consistency. Of course puppies would add even more liquid. But maybe your dog would surprise you. You might find him adding no liquid at all! The new HOMOGENIZED Gaines has such an inviting crunchy texture that lots of dogs think there's nothing better than a bowl of those little nuggets just as they come in the package. They take their water on the side. Incidentally, can you picture any meal that is so easy to feed? There is nothing for you to do but open the package—and watch your dog have the meal of his life!

Watch this signal! If you've been noting that your dog's nose is decorated with a sticky wad of food after he has eaten, you are pretty safe in suspecting there's something wrong with the texture of his food. Many dog meals contain an amount of powdery dust-like particles which form a gummy mass when the meal is moistened. The most annoying characteristic of such a meal is that it has a way of packing down at the bottom of the dish, almost like so much cement, when the dog presses his nose into it in his effort to coax it into his mouth. One of the big advantages of Gaines HOMOGENIZED Meal is its freedom from dusty particles. From the top of the package to the bottom, it's all crunchy little nuggets. There's no packing down in the dish—no stuck-up nose. In three wags of a dog's tail, the dish is licked clean.

Your dog might like to lick lollipops all day!

Dogs in so many ways are like little children. If you were to leave it up to youngsters to plan their daily menu, they would probably choose a diet of candy, soda and cake. You have to teach them the habit of enjoying the food that they need. And it's just as true in feeding dogs. Even if it takes several feedings to get your dog used to Gaines' great new meal, it's worth a thousand times!

Don't beg your dog to eat

Once in a while you can expect your dog to sniff at his dinner and walk away. Chances are he is just a little off his feed. It's a great temptation to coax him to eat. Don't do it! Take away his dish till next feeding time—and even if he refuses his meal for a day or two, don't fret. A bit of fasting won't hurt him. When he's ready to eat again, his dinner will taste like a banquet!

Once there was a little boy. He went to the beach. He didn't know why, but he went there. He began to dig in the sand. His mommy told him if he kept digging he could dig to China. And indeed he did, right through the core of the earth and everything. He surfaced in a bizare dream world where everything was pink and green. Every one was happy. And there was a pig sty with steaming donkeys, oh no, wait, it was La Canada or was it Fresno? O.K. Once there was a little boy . . .

"Get out of the car", I said. "Here ... now?", she asked. He couldn't say anything. I think he was scared. "Come on — get out!", I growled. I pulled over and stared them down. It was my story stare that did it. Finally, they got out and stood looking — small ... lost. There the two were, alone on the freeway. As I quickly drove away, I could see them leaning against the freeway signs just looking ... waiting.

The local Flounder's Club discusses business for the coming weekend during lunch.
First on the agenda is the question of admitting non-member Kirk; the answer was unanimously against it, because of his up-scrupulous morals and wild reputation. Chris then thinks of something intelligent to say, but then forgets as Julie awaits with great anticipation for a reply. Kevin demonstrates one possibility for Saturday night, and Jon agrees. Dave sits thinking of Uncle Jack and Kelly tries to eavesdrop on the whole situation. Bob, one of the founding fathers of the Flounders, is excluded from this meeting due to his non-participation in last weekend's events — (his excuse of his parents looking him in his closet just didn't stick.) As the bell rings, they shout their motto: "What the ...!"

view of downtown Los Angeles and the Harbor Freeway.

What's the one thing we all dream of day after day? A vacation, of course! We leave school with high hopes of fun in the sun. We lie by the swimming pool with sunglasses and hat on, a drink in hand, and toes dangling lightly into the cool blue water. All the pressures of school and home seem to dissipate as our worries fade into the hidden caverns of our minds. The days quickly slip by and we begin to dread the return to school their passing signifies. But, school seems even better once we return, for there are our friends, teachers, achievements, and futures. At least we have the thankful chance to forget it all once in a while, even if only for a short time.

Hey, Craig! Yeah you Craig! How do you spell "relief"? Much to our surprise, Craig instantaneously lapsed into a frenzied medieval African Rain Dance, whooping and leaping through the air, like a man possessed ... but by what we're still not sure. His ears blanched to a frighteningly dead white, as his shirt broke out in a cold sweat of vividly colored splotches. As a result, a storm suddenly developed on the horizon, and moved quickly over L.C. The rain fell in torrents, causing a flood to destroy Berkshire Dam and totally obliterate L.C. The scar on the earth can barely be picked up by the high-powered infra-red scanners of JPL, now located in Nipperhead, Kentucky. A simple ROLAIDS would have been fine, Craig!

La Canada's highly ranked Quarters team sports their new uniforms for the Omega camera. The girls actively participate in the weekend activities throughout the year with high spirits in mind. Shown here after the weekend competition, they camouflage themselves with diet coke and freshen-up gum. The defeated opponents of the team include the high and mighty Saint Francis Boy's Varsity, the hopeless Mayfield Girl's Varsity, and even Prep's notorious team. It's a bird, it's a plane, it's ... it's a balloon!
La Canada days begin on a colorful note.
Most everyone holds a deep fascination for the moods fashion expresses. This day, we nabbed six bright and shiny faces as an example of fashion in 1984. Unfortunately, they witnessed the horrifying destruction of a U.S.F.O., which is the cause of their downcast expressions. In spite of the tragedy, Brian courageously pulls through with a willing smile for the camera. Evolving from the Dit-tos and Luv-its of yester-year, we have passed through Sassoon and Jordache to Esprit, Polo, and Thriftshops, allowing for a great variety of personal expression. We'd like to Yah! Get her! She's not a Senior ... what's she doing in our area? Hey Kevin, get a pie. Scott, John, hold her. All right, ready ...! A familiar scene with our over-spirited Seniors. Senioritis may strike the academics, but we still know how to release our anxieties on lower classmen. A pie in the face might be "old-hat" to some, but to the Seniors, or rather an unsuspecting Sophomore

Has long been established one can see Hollywood Blvd. and

As September came to a close, many girls in the Pasadena area had high hopes for being chosen to be on the 1984 Rose Court. L.C. had its share of hopefuls who all paraded before the judges with bright smiles and nervous expectations. Quickly the numbers from L.C. diminished to but a few, with Christine Fuller, Katherine Strunk, Erin Olofson, and Ann Wasson making it to the sixty finalists. Ann Wasson obviously knows how to charm for not only did she make it to the 28 finalists but advanced to the prestigious position of Princess on the 1984 Rose Court. Congratulations Ann, L.C. is proud of you.

In celebration of Jenny's seventeenth birthday, She-ri gives little colored things filled with air. This celebration occurs quite frequently within the boundaries of the infamous quad. Later that evening an unidentified shrieking flying object was shot down over the Arroyo Seco Rifle Range. As the day wears on numerous amounts of balloons were presented to her in honor of her miraculous birth. Soon Jenny could no longer be seen through the vast array of brilliantly colored balloons.

By the way, where is Jenny?

Jack has tested and tried many methods, some of which have become famous across the country. But Jack's intelligence does not stop here, he also thought up the brilliant caption on his shirt. Jack's studies have landed him a scholarship to B.Y.U. where he will be staying on the third floor. The Spartans also placed fifth and sixth in the 22-26 victory over South Pasadena High.

John Phillips also recorded a career high with his 16:55 clocking for fifth. Chuck Taylor was sixth at 17:09.

In other La Canada results, Matt McQueen took eighth in 17:27, Don Culbertson (despite a sore leg) was ninth in 17:32 and young Tim Hawkins ran a 17:45 for eleventh place.

• The La Canada junior varsity was defeated by South Pasadena, 15-45, as the winners placed one through five. The locals best showing was by Mark Humphries with a sixth place in 19:07.

• Logan's frosh-sophomore squad was victorious as Alex Main led the field to the finish line, a few seconds ahead of mate Chip Galaty.

Spartans Jeff Rankin was third, Chris Meyers sixth, and Craig Broberg 14th in the yearling race.

• For the first time this season, La Canada was able to field an official girls' harrier team in competition with six runners going against South Pasadena. The Tigers were victorious.

Leading finisher for LCHS was sophomore Cheryl Somoano who took ninth. Cindy Kast had a tenth place.

Others forming the girls' team are Yvonne Hurd, a junior, and newcomers Christina Suwa, a freshman, and sophomores Pattie Green and Deena Chapman.

Next on the league list for La Canada is Blair High this afternoon at 3:15 there with the local varsity heavily favored.

This year's cross country runners, led by Todd Rankin, performed very well in league competition. The performances of Don Culbertson, Peter Kast, John Phillips, and Tim Hawkins showed that even with the loss of the experience that was prevalent a year ago, Spartan cross country remains strong and has great promise for the future.

LC Spartan Soph Runners Cop First

Taking their running "act" to Goleta up north last Saturday, the La Canada High School harriers again performed well in the annual Dos Pueblos High Invitational in competition with many of the state's better prep entries. Races were held for each grade level.

La Canada was able to field only one team. It was in the sophomore division, and the Spartans triumphed. Team points were based on the team's three top finishers.

• For the locals, John Phillips and Chuck Taylor (despite a broken bone in his foot) paced the soph victory. Phillips ran a 16:53 for the flat three-mile course in taking second place. Taylor was third in 16:57. The team was rounded out by Tim Hawkins, tenth, at 17:30, Alex Main, 13th, at 17:59 and Chip Galaty, 14th, at 18:05. Coach Pat Logan said all the times under 18 minutes were rated "good."

• In the senior race, La Canada's Todd Rankin legged the course in an excellent 16:09 for fourth place. The other local entrant, Don Culbertson, was tenth in 16:38, another good time.

Junior Peter Kast coped sixth spot in his race in the fine clocking of 16:28. Matt McQueen disappointed with an 18:31 for 30th. For the LCHS girl runners, Yvonne Hurd was tenth in the junior event in 22:38 while Cheryl Soano, a sophomore, ran 23:18 for 19th place in competition.

RUNNER TAYLOR BREAKS HIS FOOT

La Canada High harrier mentor Pat Logan learned of his varsity team's first setback, a physical one, last Saturday after the meet at Dos Pueblos HS. After the sophomore race up north, Chuck Taylor revealed he had run — and finished third in good time — with a broken foot. He had also run in that competition four days before the South Pasadena league race — and sixth, also in good time. The bone break in that race, he said, was the season's Taylor who will be his foot.

Is that a forehanded backhand or a backhanded forehand?

This year's La Canada Girls' Tennis ended with a final note expressed on "the rock". The girls played tennis and some of them ate, but the overall effect was team spirit and sports-womanship. After two losses to San Marino, LC ended league in second place. Unfortunately, LC drew Westlake (the team who beat us last year in the quarters) for the first round of CIF and lost. Nevertheless, the team continued with its enthusiastic spirit by having monthly pajama parties.

Wildcats Court as League Ruler

by Mark Humphries

It's no secret that there is little love lost between La Canada High School and their Rio Hondo League opponent Monrovia.

One month ago the championship game of the La Canada soccer tournament was left undecided after the visiting Wildcats instigated a massive free-for-all which saw Monrovia coach lead his team onto the field to fight.

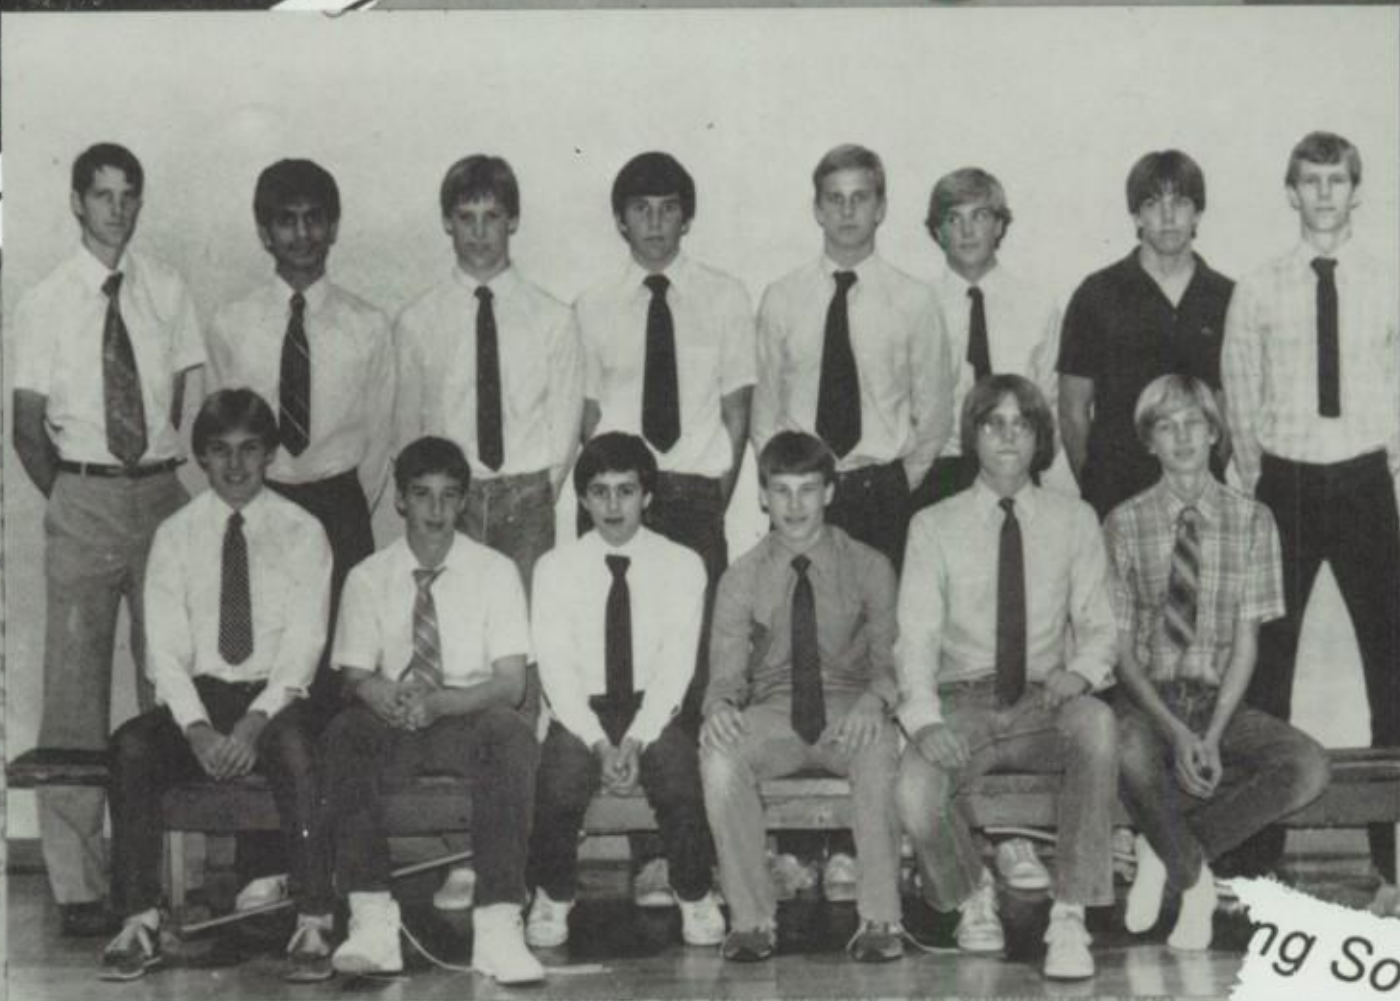

Last Friday night those same Wildcats hit a new low for poor sportsmanship when they escaped from their Monrovia zoo and invaded La Canada for a basketball game.

The contest was relatively placid in the first quarter as the Spartans battled the top-ranked 'Cats to a 10-10 tie. With Chris Smith controlling the boards and Chris Smith supplying the offense, La Canada was able to offset the eight points of Monrovia's Humberto Orio.

Monrovia Star Ejected From Game

Things began to heat up during the second period, however, as Smith scored six quick points to give the Spartans a slim lead. Then, with 3:16 remaining until halftime,

Archer explains his point to a bespectacled player as the others stare dejectedly at the ants crawling up their shorts.

The Blind Man gives the Evil Eye.

Boy's soccer this year had to keep from being upstaged by the new and talented girl's soccer team but they did a good job of it, fielding what was probably the most talented team in the short history of boys' soccer at La Canada High School. Among the highlights of the season (at least up until this yearbook deadline) were the unofficial championship of the La Canada high schools, a defeat of previous league champion Blair in the league opener, a brawl in the final game of the Christmas tournament, a number three ranking in CIF 2-A behind co-champs La Quinta and Bishop Montgomery, the highest ranking ever by an LC soccer team, and the return of all-CIF Kevin Woodhouse (and his subsequent injury) and all-leagues Scott Tibbetts, Jeff Wilson, and Jose Galvez.

On a lighter side, other highlights included Matt Murray's own goal, Jon Cohen's editorial comments to the ref at the SM game, Scott Tibbetts' 40+ yard goal at SM (affectionately known as the "immaculate connection"), and the "team song" that was sung on the bus after every away game win, complete with aerobic accompaniment.

Brian loses the ball and his dentures in one play — a new school record.

Olat demonstrates his juggling skills by hopping a pass to Jo. Jose is amazed.

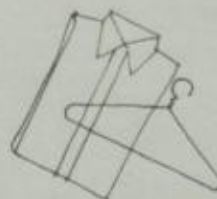

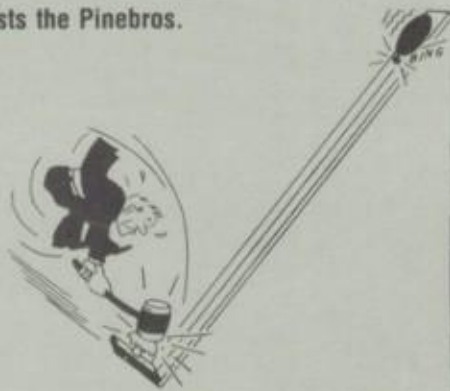

The barbaric display of the game of soccer disgusts the Pinebros.

Soccer

Our stat girls enjoy coke and a smile!

La Canada Girls' Soccer? Who would ever think such a thing could ever exist? This team not only exists, but right now (that's now when I'm writing this, not now when you're reading this) the team is doing great and has a record of 6-1-1, that's 42-7-7 for dogs. That's in case you're a dog, but you're not, so I'll continue (I had a speech prepared, but we're kind of short on time). The coach, in her first year, is Karen Mealiffe, and all that stuff, but what I really want to talk about is Stanley. Stanley is our mascot. He is quiet, unassuming, has good posture, never says a word, never complains, and comes to every game. But, perhaps the most remarkable thing about Stanley is that he catches balls. Kick a ball to Stanley, and he catches it — it's a given. Oh, by the way, Stanley is a plant. Stanley's hot — we dig him.

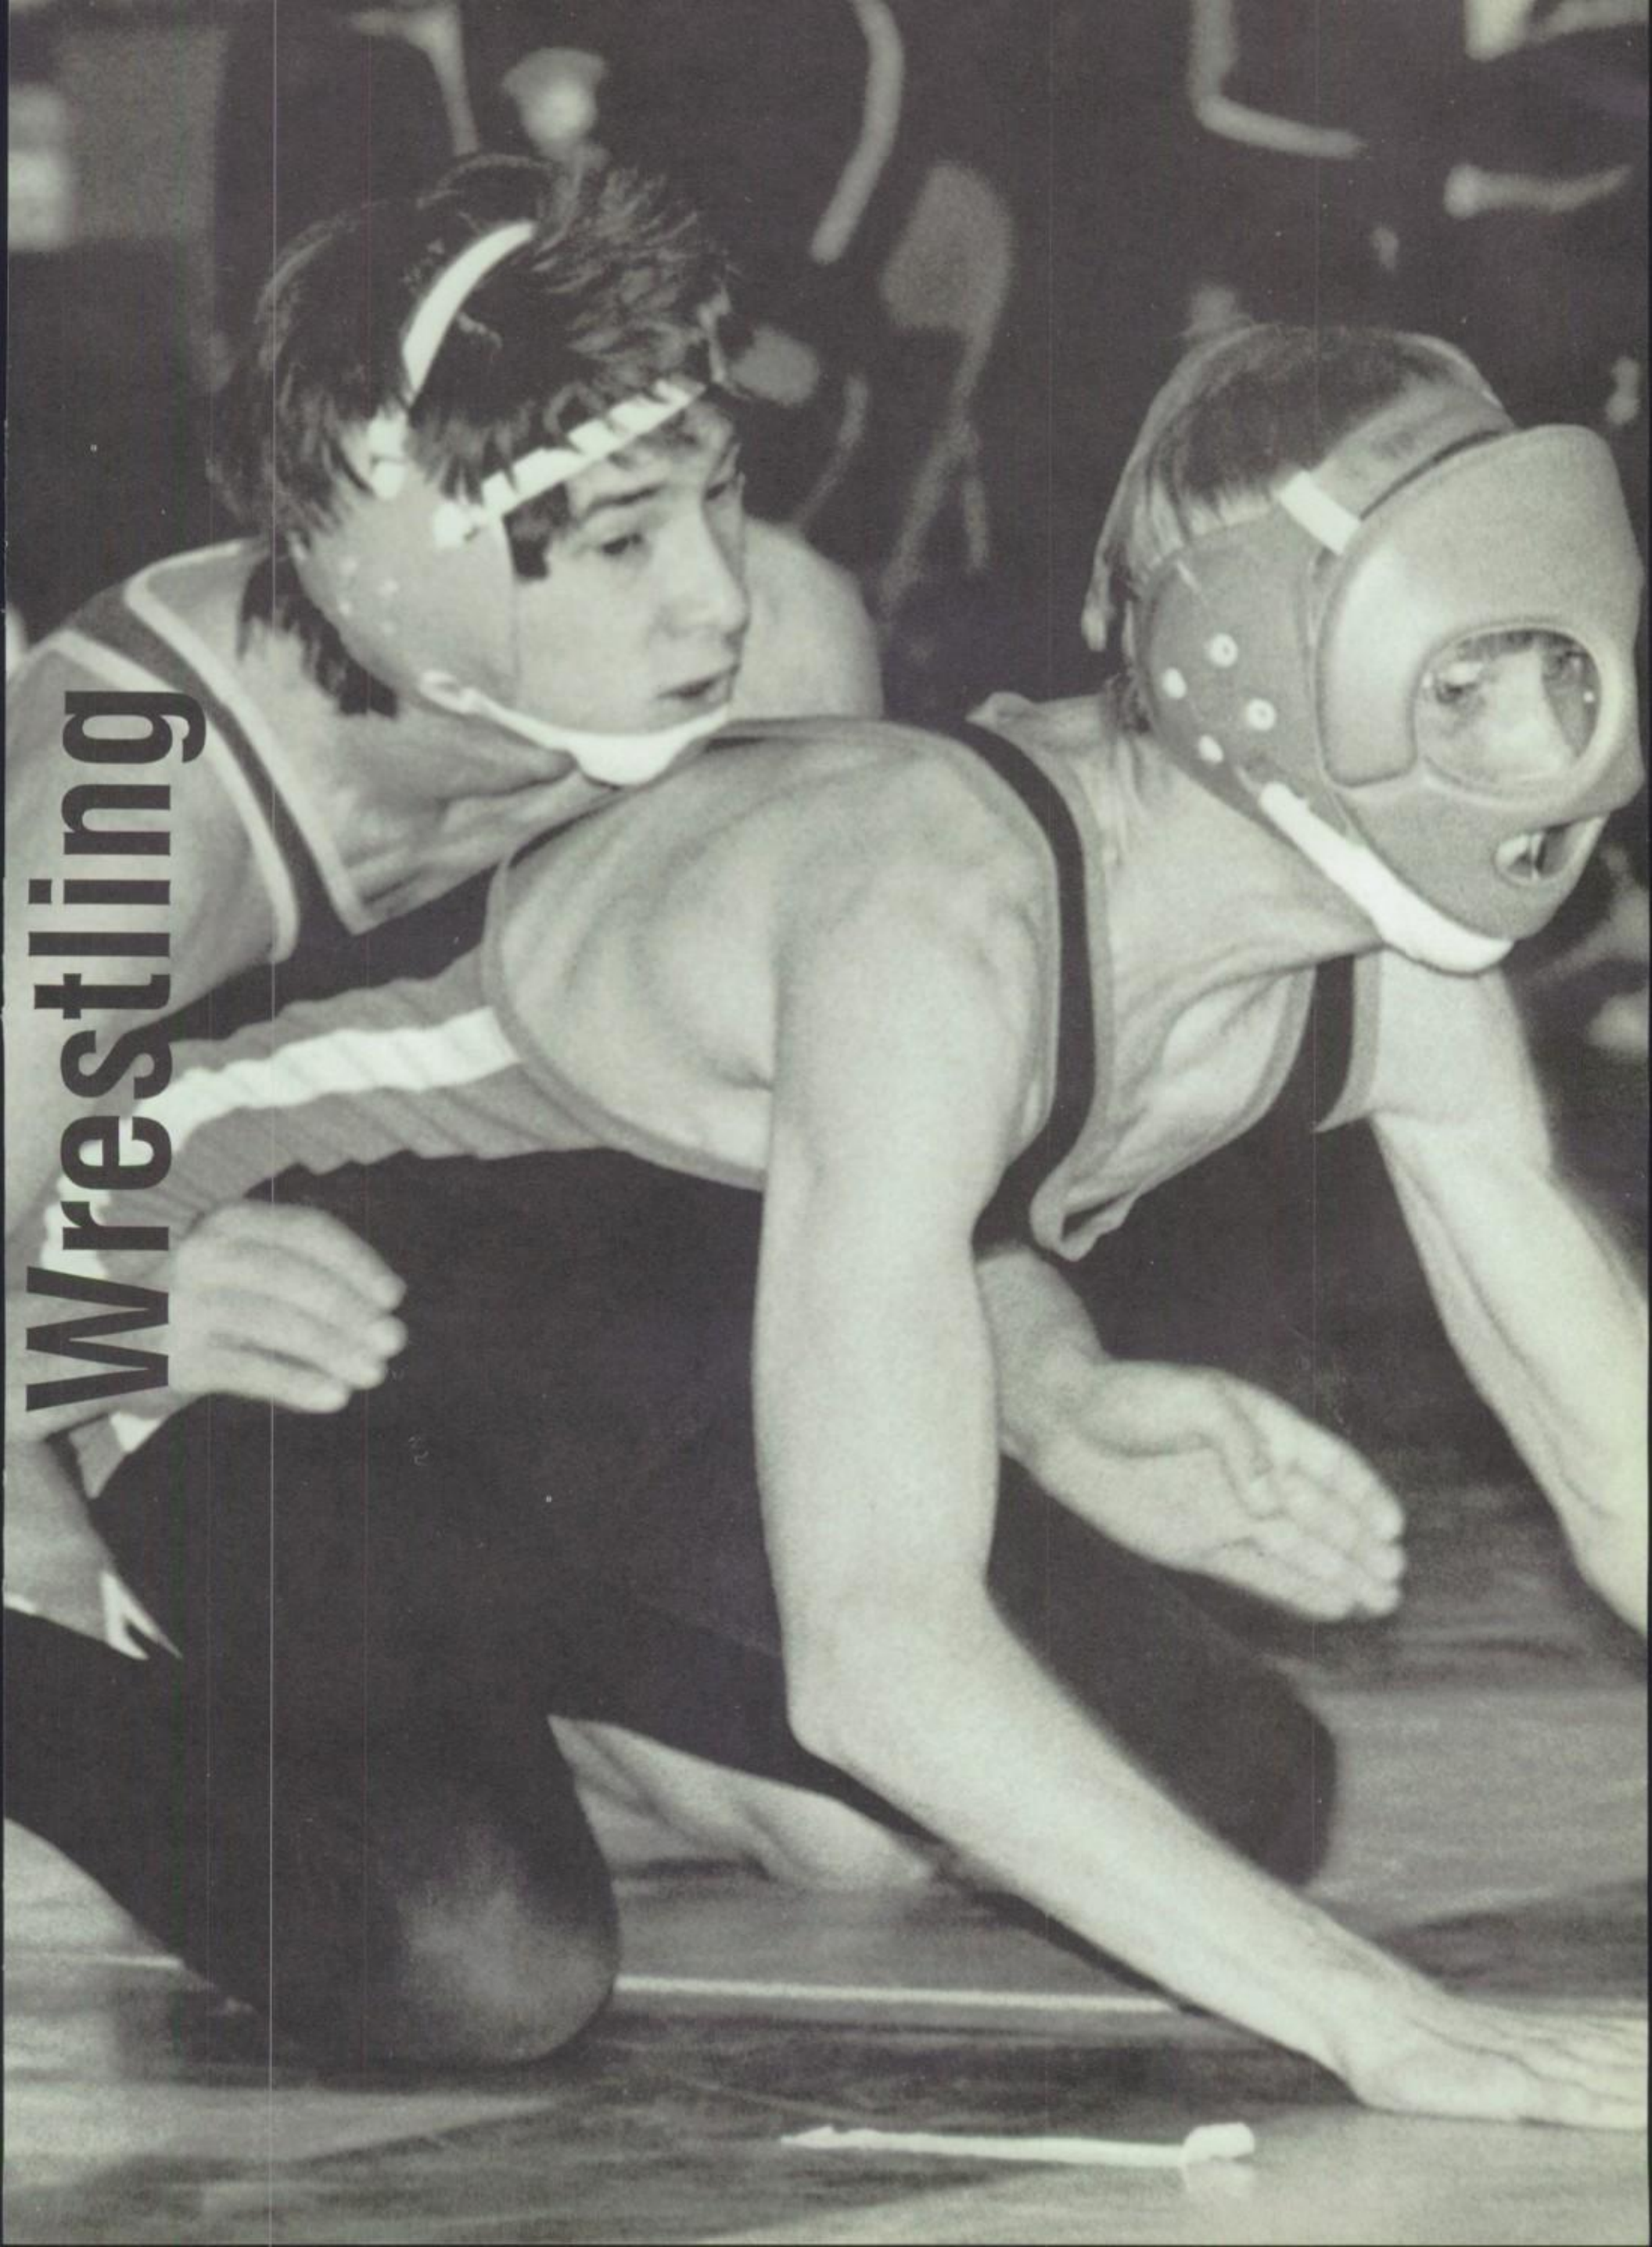

Cheryl gives Mrs. Mealiffe tips for the second half.

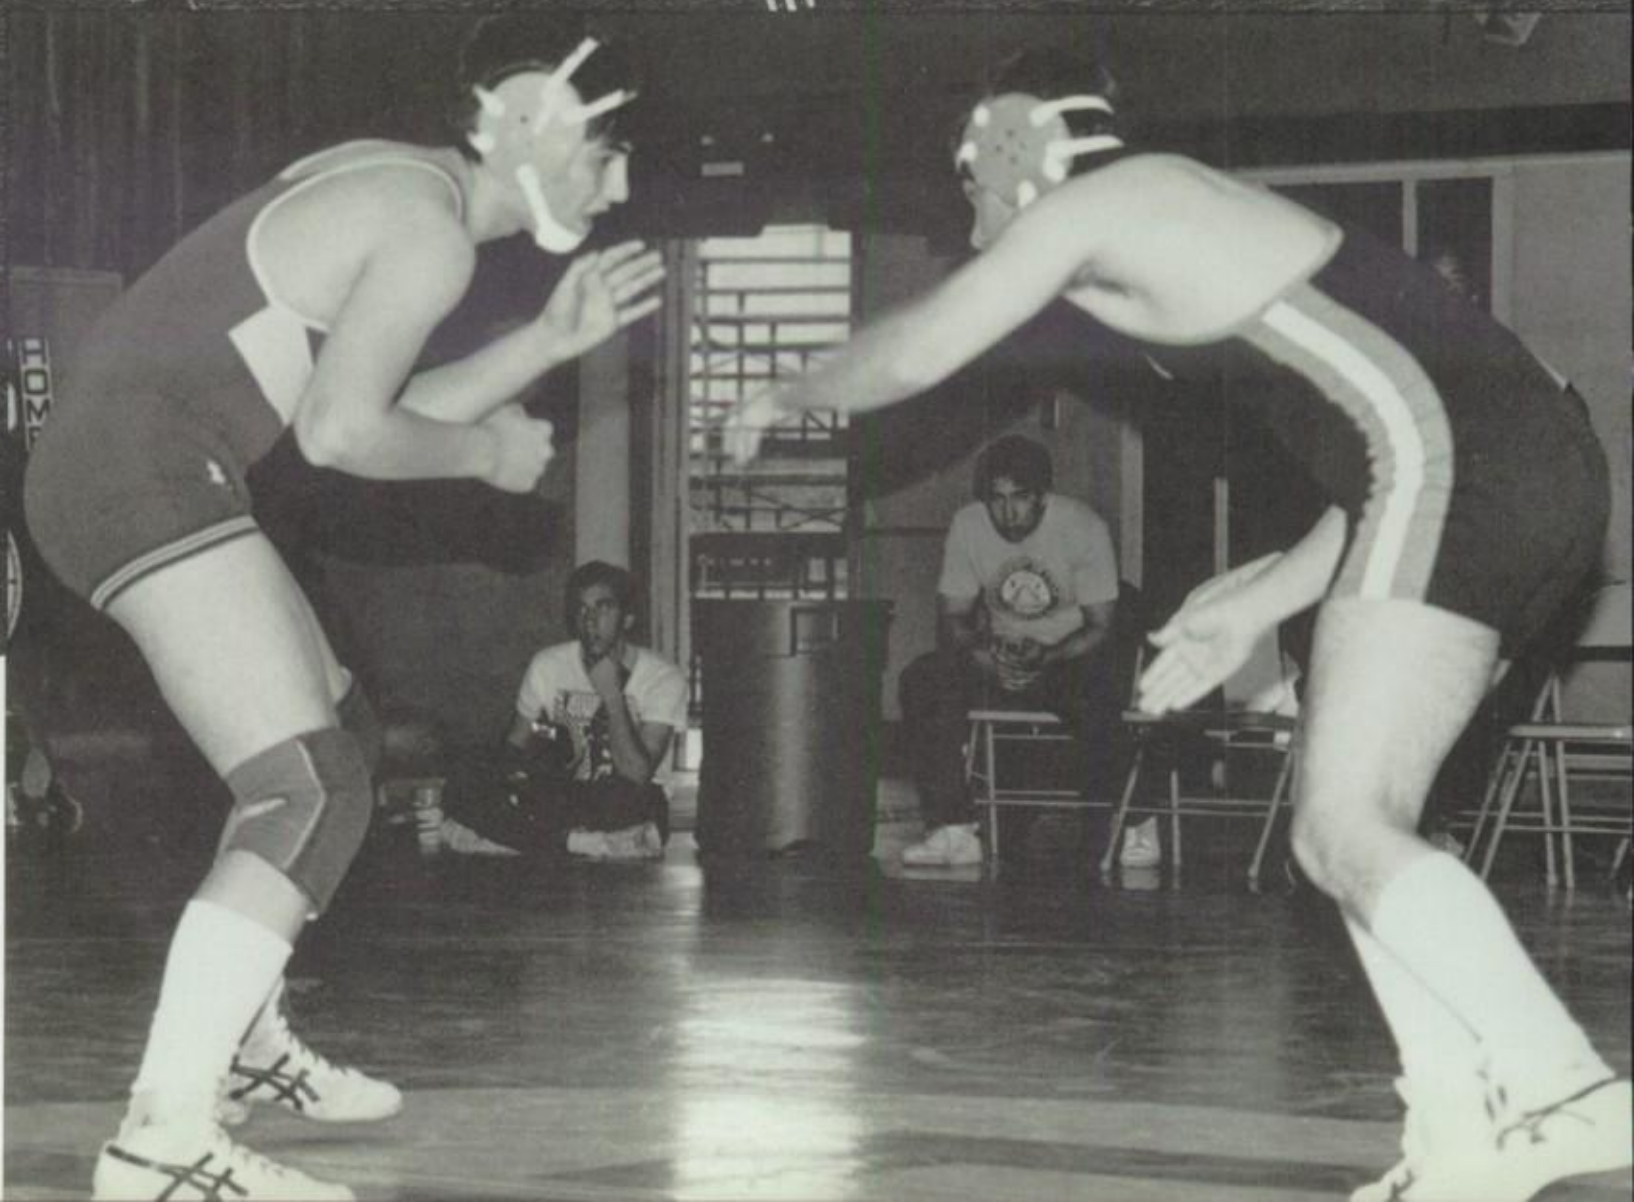

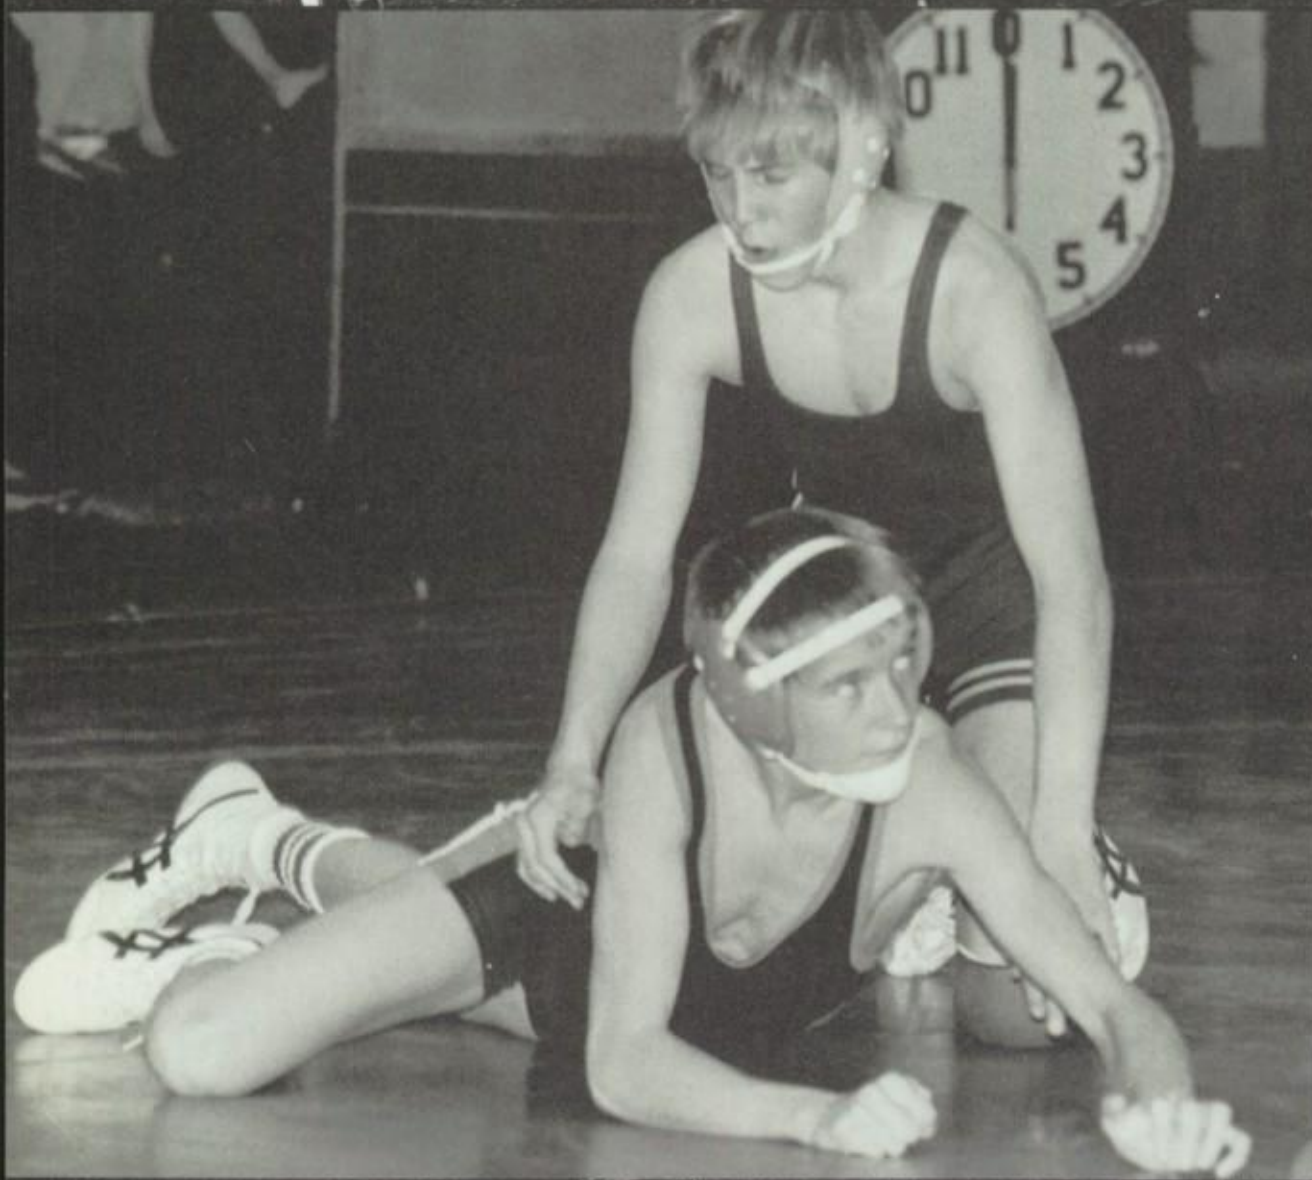

Caught up in the rhythm of the game, Katie and the fullback are found shanking ... an embarrassing moment for both.

With the strength of captains John Kim and Sean Stewart, and the help of ballboy Jimmy "J.V." Connors, the Spartans once again fielded a powerful squad. New coach Tom Parker proved a valuable asset as he provided the team with both leadership and inspiration. The team was very young comprising of 3 freshman, a sophomore, and only 4 returning lettermen. Under the coaching of Bob Bender and Tom Straeter, this year's Varsity golf team enjoyed yet another successful season. Although the team has reached the CIF finals for two years running, they've gotten little respect. The team has worked hard to fly the bunkers, avoid the hazards and gain some recognition. The leadership of Captain Rob Northcutt and league champion Steve White together with long drives from Reed Bender and twisters from John Argue all contributed to the teams winning year.

On tourist day a mob of tourists from all over the universe invaded the L.C. campus after they visited the world famous tourist traps: Lion County Safari and Forest Lawn. We caught Kirk in his flowered jams escaping the pesty crowds. Jean and friends peddled road maps to collect change for the Trans-California tour bus.

Yes, another Homecoming game at La Canada High School. Half-time, once again, was the highlight of the evening. All eyes were on the five princesses in anticipation of the crowning. The traditional red carpet was rolled out; the drums rolled; it was Erika's crown! Erika received joyful smiles and many congratulations as well as wild screams of excitement and applause from the on-looking crowd. The crown was brought forward by the darling little Lyndsey Gillins and placed upon Erika's head by Leslie Sauro who returned to La Canada for the special occasion. With the release of hundreds of red and gold balloons, the 1983 Homecoming night was again a spectacular event!

In the wee hours of the morning before Homecoming, we found the nocturnal float builders busy at work. Mr. Hagen, intrigued by his romance novel, casually glanced over at the Senior activities, whereupon he witnessed Diane and Anne returning from a freshmen supply raid. Meanwhile, other builders were often found on McDonald runs and caffeine trips. Even with the lack of food and sleep, the floatbuilders managed to finish (with a few minutes to spare) and have a blast as well. The Seniors frenzied labor resulted in a well deserved first place. Following closely were the Sophomores taking second, the Juniors third, and finally the Freshmen with a novice effort, fourth.

Whoa daddy-O! I dig on your cruise mobile. One sunny day Elvis came to town. Locals bee-boperee-bopped to the sounds of the nifty fifties and sipped their chocolate malts in the springy turf. Meg and Ter bellowed choruses of "What's new pussycat, ooohhh-o-oh . . .", while Erika propositioned for a wad of Bazooka from quad hoppers. A clique of groovy chicks nodded gleefully, showing their refined technique of cuff-rolling. Well golly

 ... All in all, it was one wing dinger of a day!

SKID ROW Prom '83

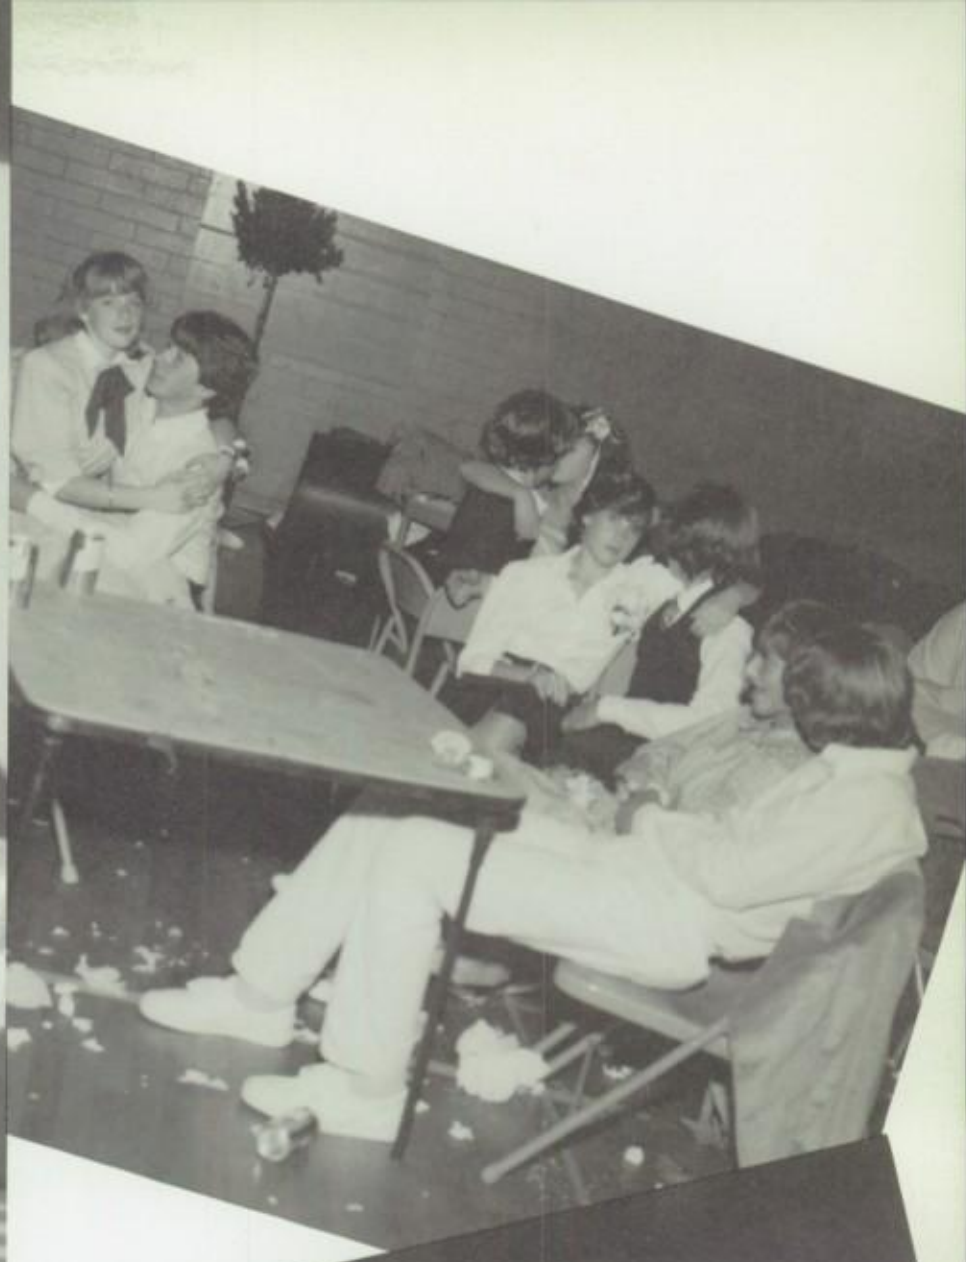

It was a gala event. Everyone who was anyone came dressed in their best attire, ready to flaunt their designer labels. There was an indistinguishable ambiance of stale bread and apple juice which mingled with the excitement of the frenzied dancers. The evening came to a smashing end with the coronation of vogue Queen

Wendy Hagen and rakish King Tom King (no pun intended). It was definitely a night for "Putting on the Ritz".

Well, It was going to be an evening of romance and balloons at the gala Circus Homecoming Big Top type dance. It was great . . . from what I heard. I was all ready to go, bouffant, (I mean boutonniere) and all. While I was waiting, I ripped a hole in my nylons and passed out. But it didn't matter because my date never showed up. So I watched the "Love Boat" and "Fantasy Island" with my parents. Then I went to bed. But I heard it was real fun.

This year's Homecoming theme was Under The Big Top. The La Canada campus was cluttered with a colorful calamity of clowns. There was a confused clown, a cute pair of Siamese clowns, and a down-home farmer clown. Other characters in this arena of hysteria included cheetas, tigers, Tweetledee and Tweetledumb. Circus day climaxed with peanuts and popcorn, perilous pitching and barrels of funky money fun.

Erica Clement
 "My heart is not touched continually, but precious times like this make everything in my life worthwhile!"

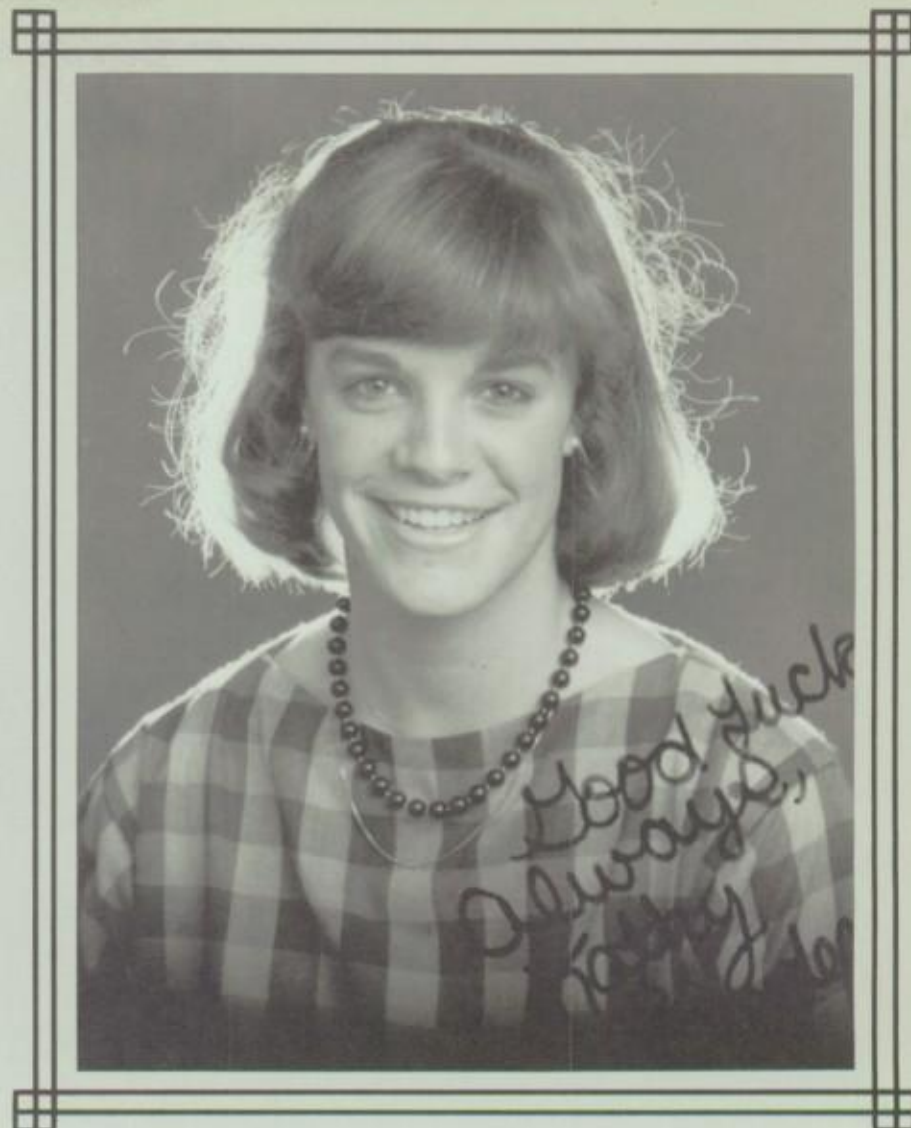

Heidi Adair
 "It was a week I can look back on and smile! A week I'll remember forever!"

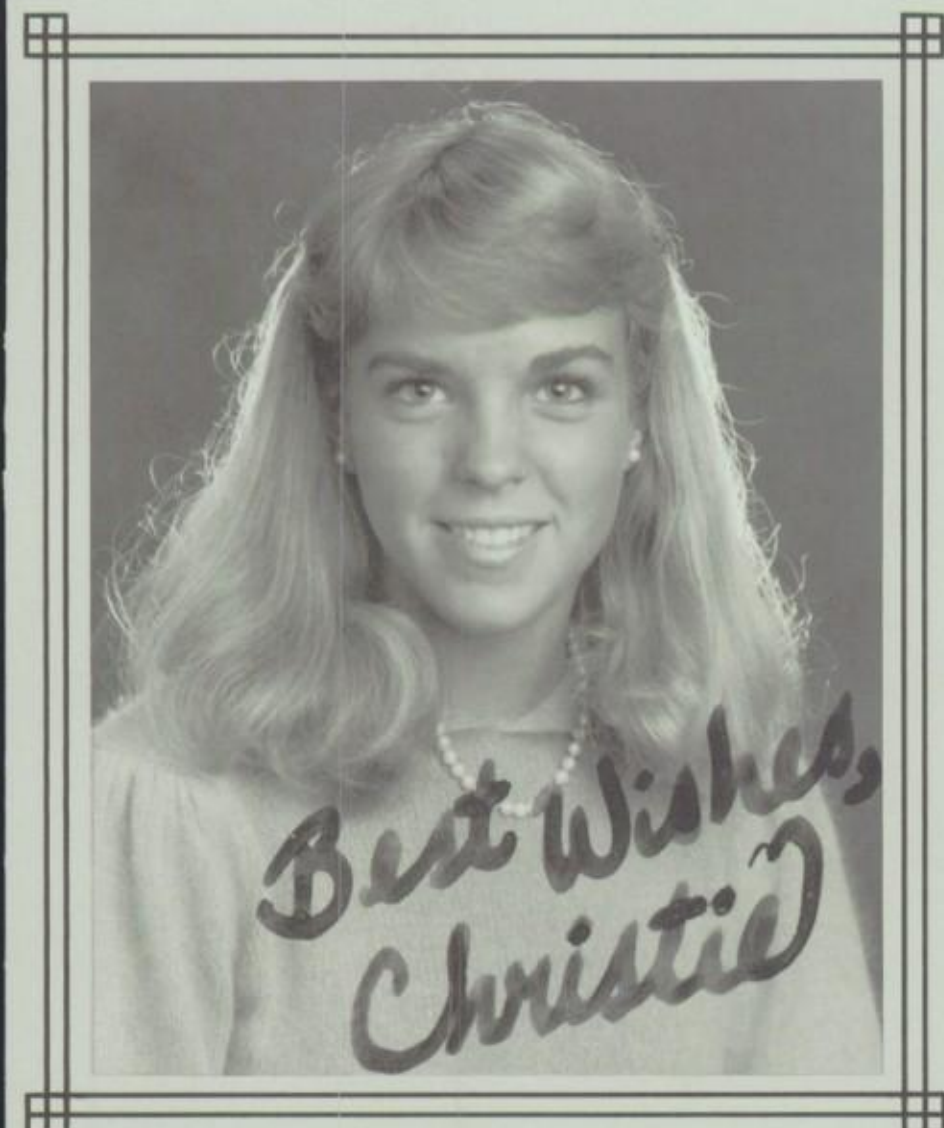

Sam Phillips
 "It was such a special time and a timeless atmosphere. I was honored and that weekend will always stand clear in my memory. Thank you again."

Kathy Bender
 "Thanks for the memories! The week was full of good times and I felt honored and surprised to be a princess on the 1983 Homecoming court. Thanks again!"

Christie Gillins
 "To all who had a part in making this Homecoming a great experience for me and all to remember — It was a time of fun, friendship and laughter. Roses and memories never fade. Thank you!"

The Christmas Dance celebrated the holidays in a truly festive style. Queen Kim Pate and her date Kelly Blaine found it difficult getting to the coronation on time. Wolfe Burgers has an awfully long wait. But Kathy told me she heard the dance was great.

She had a fun-filled night of watching Love Boat, Fantasy Island, and Don Kirshner's Rock Concert.

AS TIME GOES BY

Heart n' soul ... an unforgettable evening. It was an elaborate ensemble of saxaphones, trumpets, and clarinets, plus a little romance. Yes we know this is dumb but dance copy is hard. And pointless too. But don't worry because the type is big — fills up alot of space. The dance ... forget it. We just want to finish this copy, no we just want to finish this book. By the way, Kathy didn't go to this dance either — what an anti-social artichoke — but she heard it was great.

Petticoat '84 drafted young and able women to fight a vicious cause. Senior girls braved shrapnel and trenchmouth towards their goal of victory in the true L.C. tradition. The junior girls had the obvious disadvantages in that their unprepared mentalities were utterly obscured by the keen strategy of the seniors. Yellow rain and fallout drove the juniors screaming into the locker rooms. But it was too late. The last battle cry had been screeched. Armistice was declared sometime in late spring and the juniors and seniors were allies once again. "War is hell."

I Forgot

The forgotten page — the forgotten people in room 315. Cat, Di, and Kathy lost, forgotten in the dark room living off developer alone. And boy, did they develop — larger than life — larger than Dolly Parton. But no one knew because they were forgotten. Seriously though, the forgotten page has been totally forgotten. So, we'll just write what we want to. Pound, pound, pound — Andy, Andy, Andy! . . . Wake Up, it's only a dream. Oh yeah, Stanley, the forgotten rubber plant that was destroyed by afids. Oh, well — next. Ain't no mountain higher . . . Cat likes cloves, the spice, you know. Inside out, boy you turn me. No one is going to get this except us. Next, what else? what else? but that's forgotten too. Oh no, it's extremely early and we've waited all week to write this copy, and we want it to be funny, but everything is funny at 4:42. . . especially in Fresno. What time are you reading this? We're sorry, we apologize, we'll never do it again, JUST FORGET IT!

THE OMEGA GLOSSARY OF LITTLE KNOWN AND SOMEWHAT OBSCURE TERMS WHICH REALLY HAVE NOTHING MUCH TO DO WITH MUCH OF ANYTHING EXCEPT THAT IN SOME CASES WE HAVE SURPRISINGLY FOUND THAT FOR SOME REASON OR ANOTHER WE CAN RELATE TO THEM.

1. AUZIMNIK (oz-ZIM-nik): Of or pertaining to the state of mind in which one thinks one can splice movie film with one's eyebrows.
2. BICKER (bik-ker): A person whose birthday is so close to Christmas that no one ever remembers it.
3. BILP: The sound made when salamander larvae are dropped into boiling tar.
4. BUDOUNCHK (boo-downch-k): Originating in south central Russia, this word describes the sound made when a Cossack repeatedly slams his wife into the gound by her neck.
5. FOLLICLE (fol-lickle): Afrozen folly on a stick.
6. FORNICATION (sex): The process of making the number eight.
7. FRAKBLAKKER (frak-blakker): One who has the annoying habit of throwing himself down manholes and force feeding the sewage workers egg salad.
8. FULCRUM: Inventor of the steamboat.
9. GALLIWAMPA (gaaly-waampa): A small flightless Madagascan fowl distinguished by its unusual mating call and its uncanny ability to play hockey.
10. JOBOG (joe-bog): The Hebrew word for "bestial tendencies."
11. KATMANDU (cat-man-doo): What you find in the litterbox in the morning.
12. KIMPINIONESC (kim-pin-yun-esk): Of or having the qualities of a Puerto Rican steamboat attendant.
13. LAUGHSTOCK (laf-fing-stok): A happy cow.
14. MILIFK (mij-lifk): An expression used by Bornean tribesmen to indicate a severe injury to the lower spinal column.
15. NOMIOTIS (nome-ee-ott-iss): An herb native of the Congo used primarily in the exorcism of socialists and in platypus mating rituals.
16. OVITORBIN (o-vit-tore-bin): A chemical substance found only in Blue Whale molar teeth. Used as an aphrodisiac for lonely and heartbroken Cleveland socialites.
17. PRIGGLASTC: A long southern appendage. Get your mind out of the gutter! I mean like Italy or Baja.
18. RIJUM (ridge-um): A mush-like soup found in the Mississippi River basin consisting of crushed ju-ju fruits, two-month old milk, corn meal, sand, and receipts from SMU football games.
19. SAHAABA (sa-ho-ba): An exclamation used by immense librarians to indicate a craving for dried flower arrangements.
20. SHANANA (do-wa): A curved yellow tropical fruit.
21. SHOOBOOTI (shu-but): Tribesmen of the Upper Congo. Inventors of the bare foot.
22. THAKADRI: An organic soup that looks remarkably like the plasma stage in the development of the Canadian mudskupper.
23. TOURIQUET (turn-a-kit): A little tourniquet.
24. TRYCK (tricks-yik): The third month in the Ernu calendar.
25. TUMBLESTRA: The revolutionary pirouette created by the legendary ballerina Mamina "Clutzo" Korzikova when, during her legendary performance of Swan Lake, she tripped over a loose floorboard and fell into the orchestra pit, much to the chagrin of Maestro Bob.
26. UKLAP (oak-lap): To darn socks by the light of the new moon while listening to tape recordings of Yu Brynner's younger sister's piano recital.
27. VASECTOMY (ouch): A little known Grand Duchy just north of Luxembourg.
28. WADDLEMONGER: One who feels a dominating need to be the first person at a social gathering to strut his squat.
29. WAFERAWAY: An adjective used by Nebraska farmers to describe something in the distance.
30. ZANZIBAR: What steamboats get stuck on.

SHORT EXERPTS FROM THE ARGENIC AND OLD LACE SCRIPT

MISS M:

Okay... Let's get started! Teddy, Abby, and Reverend Harper on stage, let's go!

SHIELA:

Uh... Richard isn't here.

MISS M

Well, where is he? Scott?

SCOTT

Hell, I don't know. He told me he'd be here.

MISS M

Hhhhhhh! Alright. Let's skip to where the policemen come in.

SUZANNE

Let's wait for Richard, I don't think it'll be that long.

MISS M

We don't have time to wait. We open in two weeks. Two weeks. Now where are the policemen?

CRAIG

Uh... At football practice.

MISS M

Football? Practice?

Michelle

Yeah, there's David and Larry and Chris...

STEVE

Miss M? I am willing to read their parts 'till they get here. I mean, if that will be any help.

MISS M

NO. Thank you though. Hhhhhhhh. Okay, let's go to the music back act II.

JO

We don't have a Mr. Gibbs.

MISS M

Where is he? At football practice?

MICHELLE

No, he works, but he said he'd be here around fourish.

SUZANNE,
hey, lets go to McDonalds dressed like this!

Shila - NO, my chest hurts!
I hate it!

LARRY,

You know, I don't see how we're going to pull this off. I mean, I'm going to cancel this- you people are just not ready. Richard's not here and no one knows where he is, all our policemen are at ~~XXXXXX~~ football practice, including Jonathan, and we can't even do act II because Mr. Gibbs is at work. Hhhhhhh. We are going to be lucky to pull this off. We really are.

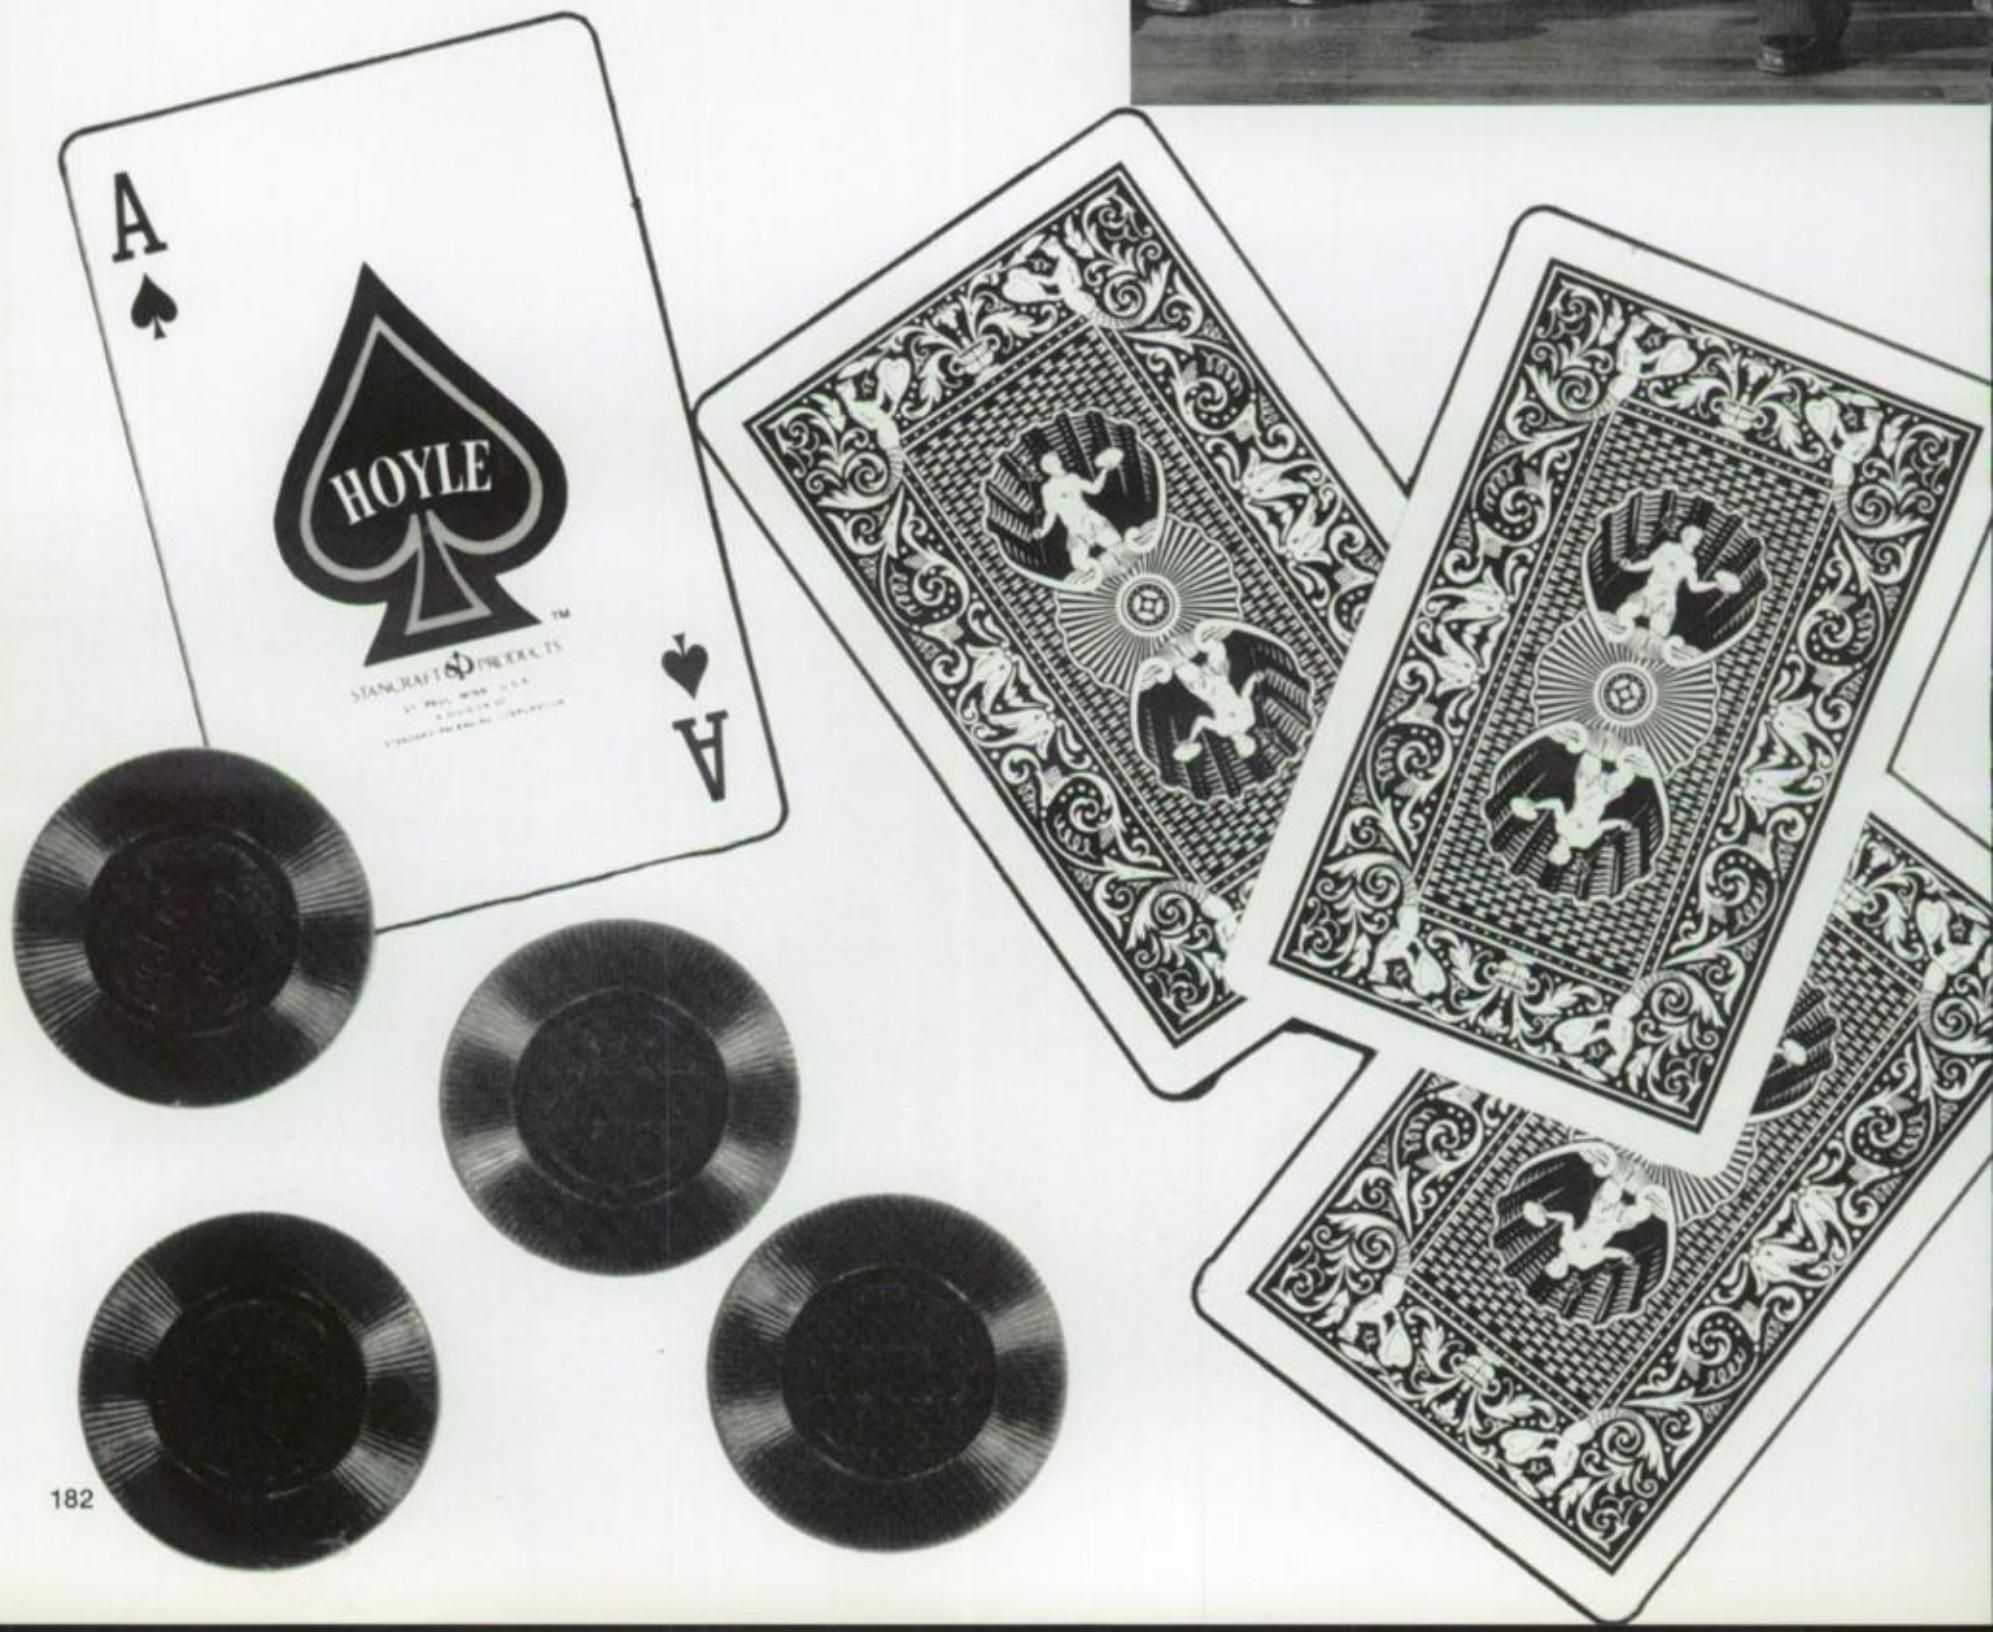

(Scene black out. Scene 2: end of last show) :

10 yrs later

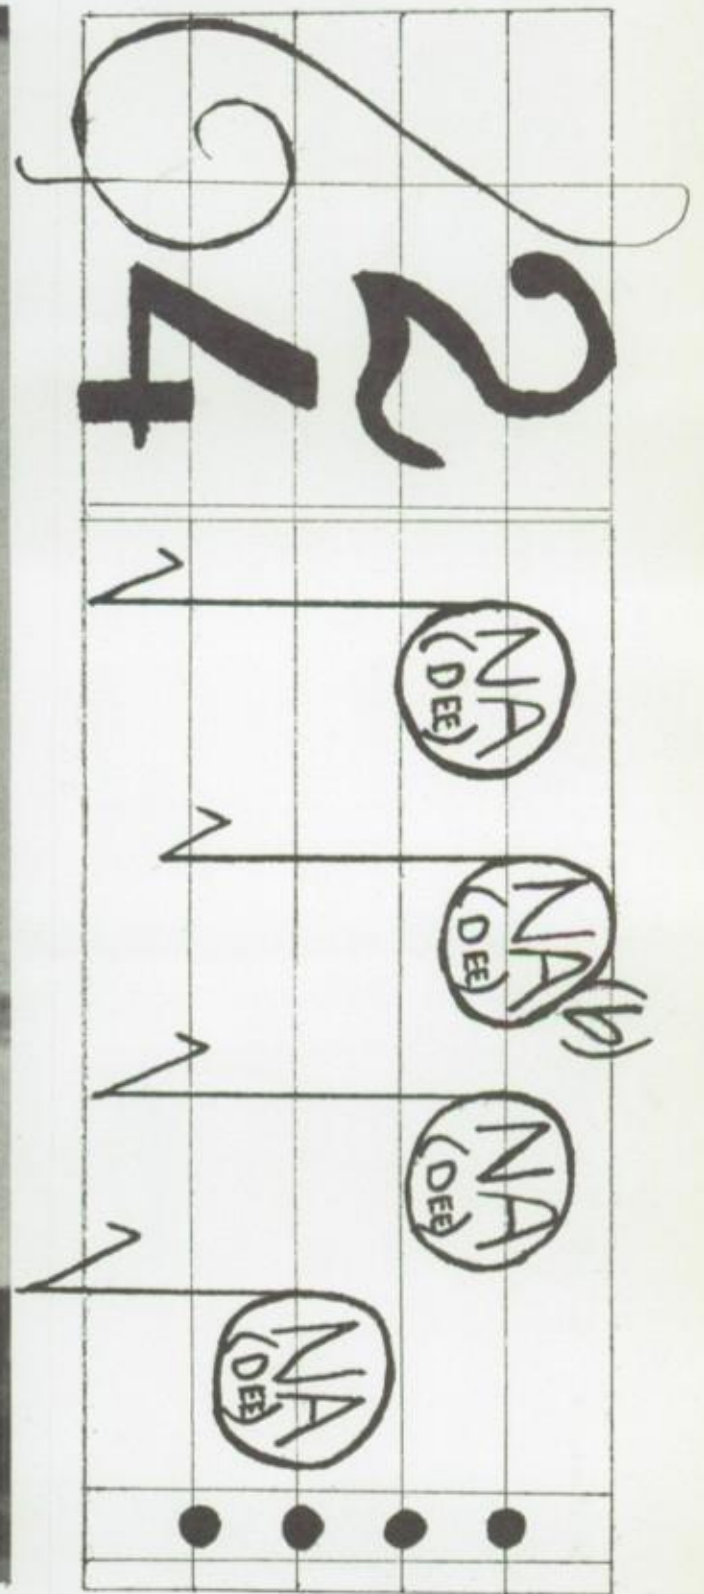

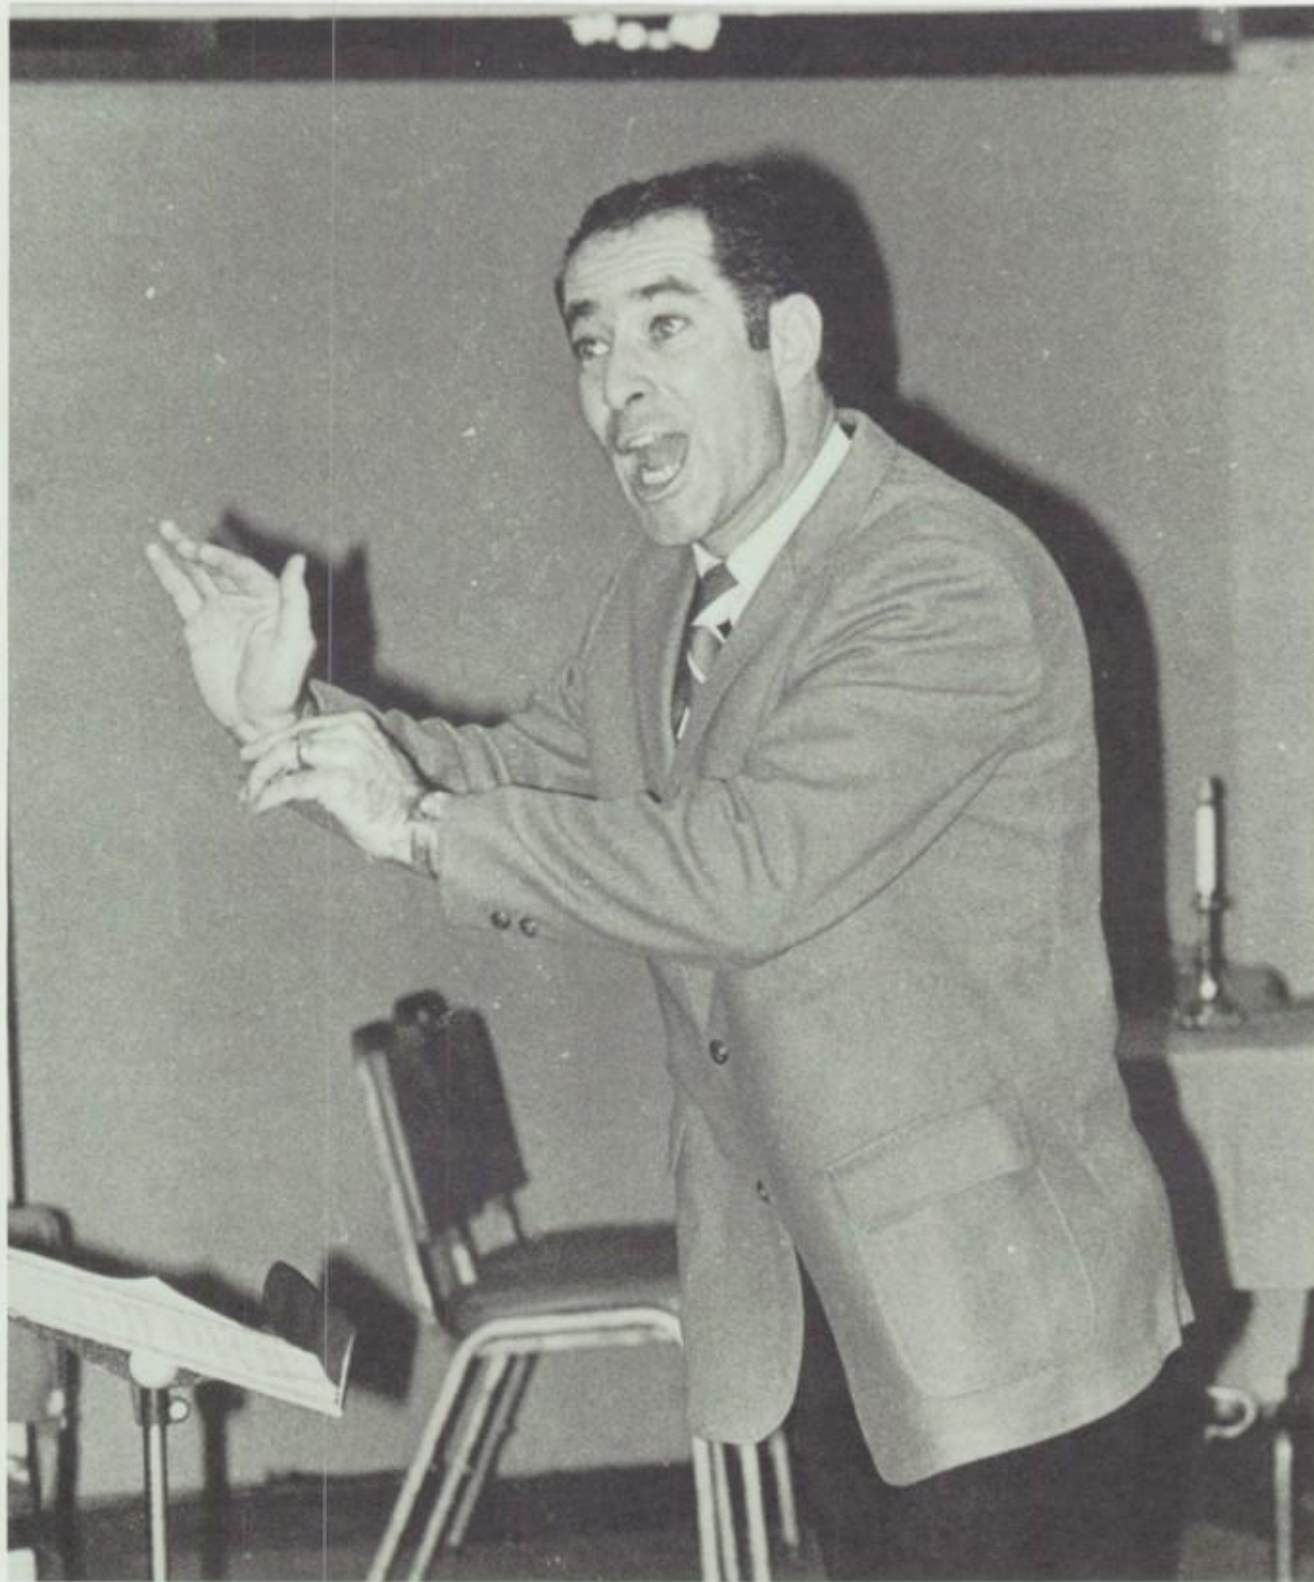

Presenting the 1994
Madrigals reunion.
Shown here in their
formal prison attire, they are joined together through the sympathy of the penal system. It's parole time for the once happy singers, yet the naughty, naughty
things they did
can still be seen on the faces of some. Their charges
range from axe-ing
a sister, male/
female prostitution,
looking like Linda Blair, and various other first-degree
naughty things.
Destiny met them,
chewed them up,
and spat them out
into a big, big,
gaping...~~ooo.. wound!!~~

THE ☐ MAD ZONE
☐ VOCAL ☐ DEAD ☐ CLACK??

Narrators Voice:

There is a fifth dimension, beyond that which is known to man. It's a dimension as vast as space and as timeless as infinity. It is the middle ground between light and shadow, between science and superstition, and it lies between the pit of man's fears and the summit of his knowledge. This is the dimension of imagination. It is an area we call The _____ Zone!

Narrator's Voice:

You're looking at the frozen image of John Kelsey. Age forty-five. Occupation-conductor, composer, in charge of a high school music program, a general practitioner of music. This is not just a regular music class for John Kelsey. He perhaps doesn't know it at the time...but it's an exodus. Somewhere up the road he's looking for sanity. ...And somewhere up the road-he'll take an excursion into the shadows, (a pause) and he'll smile then too. And perhaps across his mind there'll flit some wisp of a memory not too important really. Some laughing ghosts that cross a man's mind...that are a part of The _____ Zone. (now the CAMERA PANS back) - FADE TO BLACK.

TENORS

What can I say, ya know? I mean these guys are really intense! Escaping from some mental hospital and then runnin' over themselves with machines an' stuff, it's just crazy. so... like, just stay away from me, OK???? PLEASE!!!!!! HEY!! STOP!! GET AWAY!! AH!!!

BASSES

MADRIGAL SLEEPOVER
A Comedy in One Act.

(A darkened living room, with lantern light. Girls huddled around Kathy on the floor with pillows, blankets, sleeping bags, etc. Assorted old pizza boxes, coke bottles strewn around them.) TIME: 5:36

KATHY:

..man gets naked in bed
leep together
, no wait...
(LIGHTS ON)

MOTHER:

five A.M.!!
stop noise?
this hour?
save it for
(DOOR SLAMS, LIGHTS OUT)

MICHELE:

(TO KATHY, AS IF NOTHING AS HAPPENED) And
then the man...

KATHY:

Anyway...(BRINGS GIRLS CLOSER, WHISPERS SOME-THING INAUDIBLE. WE FINALLY HEAR:)...then the man (WHISPERS)...and then you scream and then he screams and then it's over.

(MOMENT OF SILENCE. THE GIRLS SIT THERE, SHOCKED AND HORRIFIED)

JOLYN:

(MAKING THROWING-UP SOUNDS, PULLING BLANKET UP OVER HER HEAD) That's disgusting!!

LISA:

You lie, Kathy. Nothing that sickening can be true.

KATHY:

Boogers are true.

(ALL CONSIDER FOR A MOMENT)

MICHELE:

(THOUGHTFULLY) So that's why people are born naked?

KATHY:

The worst thing is--your parents do it, you know.

LISA:

NO! Come on! No way! Uh-Uh! Nooooo!

JOLYN:

(HORRORIZED) My parents did it at least twice, I have a sister.

MICHELLE:

VOICE: He's obviously not as polite as you think. My father's polite, and we have six kids. (ENOUGH)!!!

THE CONCERT CHOIR ON PARADE (CONTD)- Mr. Kelsey/Sopranos/Basses/
Altos/Tenors on yes.

MR. KELSEY:

w/ Jim Bennet serving as PRES. photo not available

As you know, men and women, the La Canada Concert Choir has all but been forgotten. Ticket sales are down, nobody's coming to our concerts...except Mrs. Kazdeki and her cats, but that's not important. We need publicity! Now I want ideas, brainstorm! Let me hear some!

SOPRANOS (EXCITED):

We know what we can do! We can all pile into the smallest car we can find and drive down Foothill throwing egg salad!

MR. KELSEY (HAPPY):

Good! Good! More!

BASSES (CONFIDENT):

We got it! We got it! We will jump, are you following this? We will jump in full choir garb off of the four foot wall in front of the locker rooms until somebody sees us!

MR. KELSEY (ECSTATIC):

MORE! MORE! Give me MOOOORE! (WAVES HANDS AROUND).

ALTOS (ENERGETICALLY):

Listen to this! We'll dress in nothing but trench coats and flash each other! How's that?

MR. KELSEY (JUBILANT):

Fantastic! And what about you Tenors?

TENORS (ENTHUSIASTICALLY):

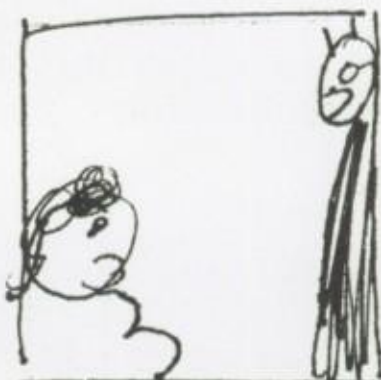

This is sure to work! We'll climb the tree under the bridge and sit on the limb until...

MR. KELSEY (VERY SMILING):

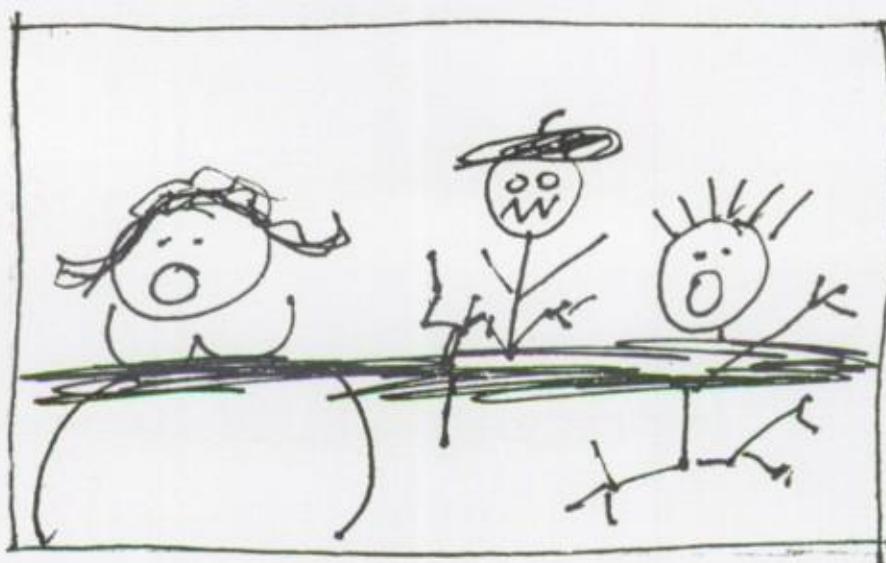

I LOVE IT! Go to work!

I know you've been sworn in, I've read your complaints, you'll now present both your cases and I'll render my decision. Miss Mattress?

MISS BUTTRESS MATTRESS: (AS ARTISTS RENDER AWAY)

Well, your Honor, I have reason to believe, no no, I know that those men right there, right there, do you see them? Good. Well, those men broke into my store one day, a bright sunny Monday, mind you, brandishing sausages. They held me paralyzed with that, that thing and they began rubbing their stomachs on my wet clay. I'm a potter, you know. Then, then they got on all fours and took turns laughing at the sink! This isn't funny. Stop laughing! It happened, your Honor, I have receipts!

JUDGE WARNER: (LAUGHING AS ARTISTS RENDER FURIOUSLY)

Th-th-thank you, Miss Mattress. Will you men present your side?

UNCLE BILL: (AS ARTISTS RENDER THEIR HEARTS OUT)

Well, it's all really very simple, your Honor. Uh walking along when lo and behold we see a potter' from it's plain bad luck to walk by a potter's sh stomach against wet clay and laughing at the sink sisters get run over by a herd of muskrats every cousins kids get bitten by lab animals. Go to a foreign country for a year of fun, laughter, excitement, new experiences, friends and place. Understand another culture by actually living in a community and family; grow tremendously by becoming more aware of cultural differences and by assuming an independence that is reinforced always by the presence of a loving, supportive host family, who will help you through difficult times, and ensure that your year is an unforgettable one. Alex says, "At the risk of sounding cliched, I can honestly say that this year has changed my life," and Karin: "Not only have I learnt a lot about this beautiful country, due to my host family, but I have learnt a lot about myself." Klaara, an exchange student at La Canada High School, relates her experience ...

From my point of view, La Canada would be a very zany place to visit. The sights, sounds and cultural zest of our little villa is easily attractive to the many peoples of other nations with equally as interesting sights, sounds and cultural zest as here . . . The chateaux, palaises, leaning towers, golden arches, and plaza de la la canada are truly one in a million attractions not to be missed. The natives are a fun loving breed unto their own hopefully not to be found anywhere but here in town of the one and only Valley Sun and Alcorn Beverage.

"Hi! My name is Klaara and I'm an exchange student from Finland. I came to La Canada two weeks before Christmas vacation and I have had a good time here. It's not always easy to be an exchange student though. I faced some problems and sometimes homesickness, but by talking to my host parents and friends, I was able to overcome these. Staying in the community of La Canada was a terrific experience, and I especially enjoyed staying with my host family, whom I like a lot. Travelling was something I did quite a bit, and I really like sunny California. I think an exchange student year is a great experience, that teaches you a lot about life."

HOW TO ORDER

It's easy to get the best in motion picture entertainment from Films Incorporated! Read over the ordering instructions below carefully. Then, for easy reference, refer to these instructions when filling out the attached form.

- To order individual movies, use ORDER FORM 1.
After you've selected movies, list their titles and your choices of playdates on ORDER FORM 1. If you order at least three feature films by mail on this order form, follow special credit and substitute restrictions cited on pages 223-224 of this catalog, and avoid placing phone calls regarding your order—you automatically qualify for a 10% discount! Be sure to add a cartoon for each of your playdates!
- To order Audio Brandon Film Festivals or create your own movie packages, use ORDER FORM 2.
After you've selected your Audio Brandon Film Festival, write the name of the Festival and the page where it appears in the catalog on ORDER FORM 2. Then, list each individual feature title included in the Festival and your choices of playdates.
Also use ORDER FORM 2 if you want to create your own film festival and take advantage of the Audio Brandon Package Prices offered on page 1 of this catalog. Be sure to list each movie title included in your package and indicate your choices of playdates. If your package contains more than 5 individual movie titles, please list these titles and your choices of playdates on a separate sheet and attach this sheet to the order form.
- Indicate correct addresses.
Make sure shipping and billing information is complete and accurate. If different, list both addresses.
- Tell us about your organization.
Be specific when filling in useful information concerning your organization. This not only speeds processing, but also allows us to be aware of special situations and circumstances. The more we know, the more able we are to offer you total service!
- Date and signature.
Before you sign, read over the conditional agreements on pages 223-224 of this catalog. If you have any questions, contact your local Films Incorporated exchange. Please take note of any special credit restrictions which must be followed.
- Check and mail.
Is all information correct? Have you signed and dated the bottom of the form? Do you have any additional films or shorts you wish to add? If your order is complete, tear out the order form, detach the envelope and mail today!

Yes, it's that time of year again, the time when you, that's right you, once more have the opportunity to order your choice of full-length and/or short subject motion pictures from the American Association of Drama Clubs Inc. On this page is represented the Drama Club of La Canada High School and just some of the wonderful works they've done. You can order "The Wizard of Oz" starring Kristine Fuller as Dorothy and Michelle Anselmo as the good Witch, or "Singin' in the Rain" starring Club president Craig Woolson in the title role and Jo French as Officer Blarney Stone, or even the Club's newest release: "Buccaneer Tomfoolery" starring Ben Martin as Dale the Impaler and Shiela Lehman as Laverne. Order now and if you circle and name the actor in the top right corner of this page you'll receive the AADCI's Greatest Hits absolutely free! So order now; time's awastin'!

CAN YOU SOLVE THIS?

Should you successfully complete this problem, you will be eligible to enter our prestigious Math Club. There, you will be invited to participate in our out of town competitions in written examinations and chalk talks as well as in local fund raisers and field trips. It will be most beneficial to prospectively bright futures such as yours. In addition, if you hurry, you will also be placed on the special list of lifetime members in Mu Alpha Theta, a nationally founded club. There, you will receive a bona-fide membership card and certificate of enrollment, and will be bestowed an honor to carry within your heart forever. Join now, and pave the way to a brighter future for yourself and the world. Don't forget the green and bananas!

Be All That You Can Be

Fly with the few, the proud, . . . Option

Join the people who have joined Option.

Option

Option is a great program for all dissatisfied students. In option, you will no longer experience long and boring 100 minute periods, but instead, Option classes, led by Ted Richardson and Dennis Sanchez, are short and filled with excitement and adventure. Also, not only are required classes offered, but many unusual courses as well. One can take classes in rock fighting, gardening, plant recognition, music appreciation as well as flight elevation. The excitement, however, doesn't end in class, because when not in class option students can be found hiking or taking bts. If you are an adventurous high school student, you should strongly consider Option as an option.

Option Member Inquiry Card

Yes, I feel that I am Option material and I would like to receive more information about your outstanding program.

Academic Decathlon

The La Canada High School Olympic Decathlon team won second place in sweepstakes in recent competition among competing high schools in Los Angeles County.

Silver medals were awarded to the team of Kim Callister, Elizabeth Calciano, Amy Coffey, Scott Williams, George Rappard, and Wendy Wade. The alternate Team composed of Jackie Dubin, Inger Feeley, and Greg Crawford received Olympic pins for their achievement.

Four students received individual awards. Kim Callister received an Olympic pin for highest honors in mathematics, Elizabeth Calciano won for social studies, and Amy Coffey won in both literature and mathematics.

Preparation for the decathlon began last May for most team members. The team, coached by Jim McDonnell, spent exhaustive hours in outside research and self-testing.

The La Canada Booster Club sponsored financial services for the activity.

Mr. McDonnell and the Academic Decathlon crew are busy with last minute preparations.

FIRST-CLASS MAIL — Please open and check.

This booklet contains information to help you understand your scores on the SAT (Scholastic Aptitude Test) and Achievement Tests. Your scores are reported on a scale of 200 to 800. You receive separate scores for the verbal and mathem. SAT. SAT-verbal subscores (reading comprehension and voc. scale of 20 to 80. TSWE (Test of Standard Written English) scores reported from 20 to 60+.

The tests have no passing or failing scores, and they are not scored on a curve—that is, the scores of other students who took the test with you had no effect on how you did.

Percentile ranks, however, do show you how well you did compared with students who took the test in the past. Your percentile ranks are given directly below your current scores and tell you the percentage of students in the group specified whose scores were lower than yours. For example, if your SAT-verbal score is at the 45th percentile of college-bound seniors, you scored higher than 45 percent of all college-bound seniors who took that test any time while in high school. (See pages 3-6 for more information and tables of percentile ranks.)

If you took the SAT or Achievement Tests on earlier test dates, the dates and your previous scores appear below your current scores and percentile ranks. The space under Achievement Tests headed ACH AVG shows your Achievement Test average, which was obtained by adding all the current and previous Achievement Test scores on your report and dividing by the number of tests you took.

The "College Plans" section lists the colleges to which you asked that score reports be sent. (Reports to colleges include only the college receiving the report.) This section also gives percentile ranks of your scores compared with those of recently enrolled freshmen in each of those colleges (see page 4). Other sections of your score report contain (if you answered the Student Descriptive Questionnaire) a summary of the most recent information you provided about yourself.

"Willie I need some pillows."

"Don't fret Marky, Uncle Willie will get you some more."

But where does the story start? Well from February 19 to the 25th La Canada bade farewell to 27 brave souls who set out to Yosemite to reap in the great outdoors. Two groups were set up. The first led by Fred "weasel" Hansen, and the other led by Phil "the sneaky" Pack. Then nightfall came but for three young men came the dire need for home comforts. There upon they sacrificed their precious sleep time in order to entertain some young women to a game of UNO.. While they were preoccupied William Wonka Man "the thief" Hwang set out to acquire the vital comforts hidden in the entertained amazonian womens cabin. Then late at night the vengeful women set out in force led by our very own foreign exchange student Alex "the ripper" Kuhn. Upon entering the mens cabin they turned animal, jumping up and down until finally the mens room was left in shambles and the vital comforts of home never to be seen again. There they were the pitiful three left cold and shivering in a helpless state. But you say stop I say more! The next day the plotting Fred "weasel" Hansen defected to the enlarging Republic that was led by Wild Woman Zemurus, Pooper Hartl, Edwin Meese, Stalker Nelson, and Missy Erin. These evil persons entered unlawfully the mens room and hung decapitated crustaceans from the rafters of the cabin they even robbed the room of all available means of illumination. Could this incidence go unavenged? Nooooo!

Adrenalin pumping the trio of men set out to enter weasels cabin. Ravinder "C.cc.courageous" Khaira was then assigned the duty of obtaining the means of entrance for he resembled Fred nearest. And after a careful makeup job he took on the identity of Fred. Obtaining the key from the front desk the set out to ransack our beloved Calculas teachers room. When the job was finished the room was to be seen. Similarly they entered the amazonian womens room presenting similar havoc for the unsuspecting ladies. Satisfied a good night sleep was instore.

Freddy entered his room "oh my gahd!" Was his first stated phrase. But bubbling inside his mind was a mathematical motive of revenge. The next day was as usual only that he did not make apparent his means of revenge to the trio of men. After a long afternoon nap Fred set out to tell his republic of his plans of revenge. "Shower boys?" Unsuspectingly "Oh they just think we smell." they just entered the showers whereupon screaming ensued, "Phil please my clothes!". Egad! Its Phil "the sneaky" Pack stealing these boys clothes until all that was left was cotton underwear. Photographs, and wild running proceeded. Embarrassing as it was the men had the last laugh. Due to the lack of water containers some of the women drank from the mens bottles. But not noticing that the water was laced with laxitives. The effects were predictable and the most effective was the queen of the amazonians Cathy Dewey. But fun was all that we had. Others in our group was Our Swiss Martin, and Barry Wells. To end is to say we all became good friends in natures most beautiful habitat.

ONE CLASS

ACT

It was incredibly, unanimously, definitely decided that you would receive this dedication. You add a certain flair to everything at this school and command the respect of teachers and students combined. We hope that it doesn't embarrass you yet it is not surprising that our work is for you because without your unique, authentic manner, this book would not have happened. It would have been an impossibility without you . . . it's true . . . and with this we hand you this dedication of 1984.

OMEGA DEDICATION 1984 . . .
SIR JAMES MCDONNELL

Here are found the ruderal yet preponderant gestures of uncomprehensible affection and mymidon. After spending hours with these profound words in gestation, they were set to paper — poetry — no history recorded till Armageddon. The senior class has laid down the final words with a touch of the usual verbosity and articulate definition that the class of '84 has been so famous for — with lack of anything more profound to add . . .

. . . The Final Word.

Hiedi Adair — How does it feel . . .
 D.B.? Cici Alvord — Gotta find my corner of the sky. Vicki Astamendi — Thanks kids for making my year bearable and good luck Mikey you need it. David Auten — You have to play the game to win the prizes — The Great Autone. Noelle Bachand — To all friends, I wish you the best of everything, you made it all worthwhile & please keep passing by the open windows. Carla Back — Here's to the Desperados! And thanks to all my best Buddies for the friendships & good times. Good luck to all seniors in the future. Bob Barrett — Smell ya later!. Susan Beshid — "Time goes on! Time will tell, Think You're in Heaven, But you're living in Hell". Jim Bender — All the best For the best of the rest. Lee Bird — RPS does it on Angeles Crest, Inverness, and Chevy Chase!. Diane Bissias — . . . to feel doesn't S.P. Kelly Blain — Did anybody read anything I wrote? Denise Brath — Damn I'm good in the water. Eric Breckheimer — Hey gang, besides those memorable classes (PH2 and Calc), the parties, pep rallies, and everything else have made my Senior year the greatest. Mike Brown — OK . . . OK . . . so It's a Disco Truck . . . Jennifer Burt — Best wishes to the class of '84' for an exiting and happy futer! I thank you for the memories, Its been fun. Joyce A. Burton — I'll be glad. Bill — "LOVE!". Kevin Cllahan — Hells Angels Forever! SStephanie Camfield — To all my friends: Have fun, I sure will! (spo' in 84) Alex Case — At this time of festive occasion I would like to wish you all a happy Migglemoose: I love you all. end Quote. Diane Clark — I'm laying next to the astronaut. Erika Clement — Dear Diomond Dave and Alex VH, I often think of our childhood days Summer trips to Cannon Beach, Altitude 9000 at Mammoth, Handcuffing our . . . OOps sorry Erika, you wrote a little too much so we had to edit a few words, Thanks for helping me through High school — I love you Paul and Blake! Jonathon Cohen — When playing soccer, always go right; Jon was here. Jean Coleman — I have enjoyed my 4 years of high School and wish everybody the best of luck in the futer. Goodbye 84!. Nick Collura — The taller the "Dog", the mader the "Mad Dog"! Nick + Gina. Doug Conroy — I sacrificed it all for the party. Cathy Cook — Who says the party's over?! Greg Crafurd — Caught in my own tornado. Jacqueline Cromer — 84 is finnally out the door Goodbye friends, fun, L.C. Jennifer

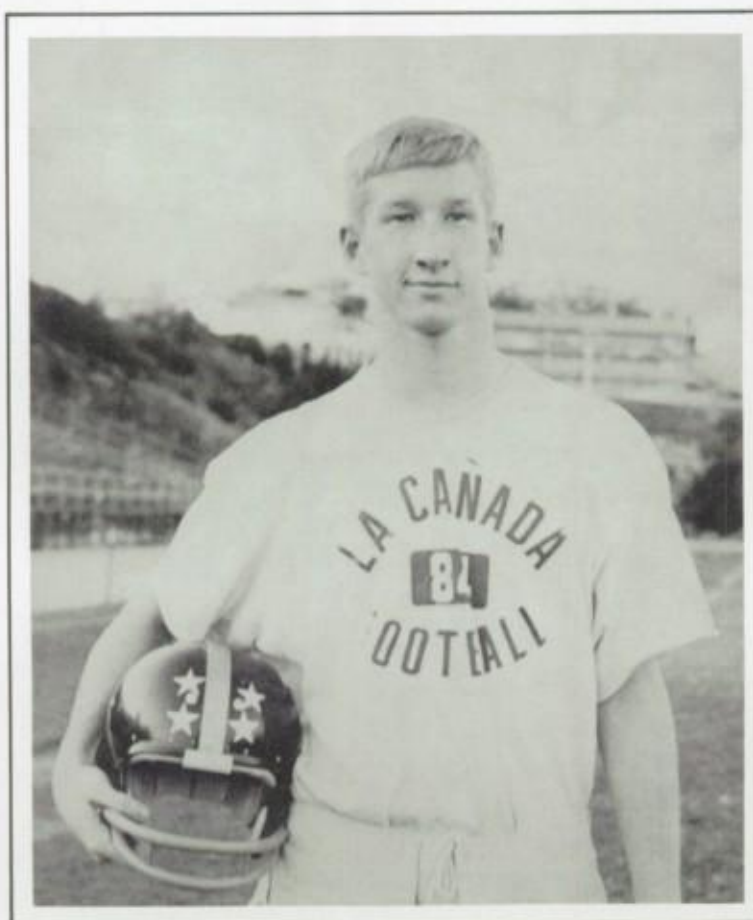

Crum — Buddies, its soo Cal to no Cal, but we'll keep the traditions going. And Spo Mo in 84. Don Colbertson — Peace, love and Jim Dawson — To all friends past and present: it's been great, let's do it again sometime. Lisa Del Guercio — To all my good friends old and new this was the best year because of you. Cathy Dewey — We cannot direct the wind, but we can adjust our sails — Thanks for some great high-school years to Kim H; and all you "neat guys" from Yosemite. Chana Dickerson — To maryla Weed, V.B.F.: Wool — Zack — D'Auria — Hause — Summer; here we come; Tom Petty rules and I love you Ivan Lendl! Julie Dixon — I'm having a senior year — graduation and my engagement are exciting! Jenny Drake — Peace, Love, and Bobby Anderson. Jackie Dubin — Thanks senior class for weeks of cwc. Thrasher trips, initiations and best friends — NB, WW, KS, SD — BM. Beware of cheaters!!!!!! Sherrie Dubin — Thanks seniors, for Mazatlan trips, special memories, and best friends. JD, NB, and RS — I Love you!! Chris Easter — It's a girl my lord, in a Flat-bed Ford slowing down to take a look at me. No mom, I swear, the computer that calls home with Mr. Hagens voice on it always makes mistakes. P.S. Lunch club my house. So Julie, when are we gonna have our late nite talk. Suzanne and Charlotte. Criag Wallace — Hey, Vince, it's 6 feet and pumpin', what are we doing here? Vickie Walsh — To all the swankers and bumblerers too I wouldn't have made it if it wasn't for you. S.M., E.F., T.S., W.B., C.S. (yuck), S.C. (sadly), and of course "the" T.N., but why does it have to be so ugly! Love ya A.M. from A.W. Mary Wiederkehr — Chana "Wildone" Deadhead — Woolzack Uni here we come; Miss ya LH and KZ — I love both of you. Scott Williams — Life's nothing more than a game; just don't pull a Hargrave! Jeff Wilson — L.C.H.S. Varsity soccer rules!!!! Jill Winterbottom — Thanx Craig Wallace for the only decent . . . or should I say the "only" parties all year. Desperados?!! . . . Yes! Eric Wood — The ice cream cone fell off the dog house!!!! Richard Woodburn — Dick Wood * I think I am on burnt! The TF club does exist. * it's not dirty, it's my nick name. Steven Woodruff — Dear La Canada, existence exists, A is A, and man possesses consciousness. Thankyou — I look forward to doing business with you in the future. Craig Woolson — Bing is King. Dominic Yoong — When in a fishtank, do what fish do: blow bubbles, bend to the J.'s, ode to the T's and H's, and say why not. Eric Zanteson — These Buds are for you, and maybe the Flounders Sung — Ung — Cung — Kung. Uninformed — These will be the moments that we would treasure in our lives. Another no name — Life's like a hot bath, it feels good while you're in, but remember, the longer you stay in, the more wrinkled you get. A Desperado — Love to the Desperados. Jill Skinner: FPS of A unite! Tasha Zemrus: To sing, to laugh, to dream, to walk in my own way and be alone . . . Claudia Hess: Life means nothing without a purple scarf. Alex Kuhn: My enigste Amerikaanse hōerskool — Totsiens! IF: "oo" is the middle word in school. Julie Shively: W.T.F., FOR FRI, Buns & Pickles, vacation fun. Karin van der Meulen: Ik had een fantastisch jaar op LCHS, bedankt! Lisa Grigg: Bobby: The reason I missed swim practice was from senioritis. Omar Ikram: Nobody promised me a rose garden; I didn't get one either. George Rappard: Years from now my children will look at this and say "Why did you write that daddy?" Anita Fostrey: Hey guys, look what Gumby can do! The Golden One: Behold forever and always the sacred words "EGO", "I", and, "MINE". Anthem. OO: "if" is the middle word in life. Rob Northcutt: Always remember to keep some sunshine on your face. Charlotte and Kathy — Hvor-dan har du det? So anyway. God said let there be friends — and . . . There were these two guys walking down the road — actually girls and they were talking and one said . . . "I like a little aahvoocadooo maaashed in my whiskey" because youre da whan who work but always remember to waaatch out WAATCH OUT . . . and then the two girls walked to the Hang out place of the 80's (better known as Winchells) where they met 2 gorgeous (the most gorgeous guys ever in the entire universe) and they went to Fresno but didn't do the thing they hate the most where they finally got hair styles they really liked so then they went to Berkeley and saw lots of people in wheelchairs and an elephant man and one screamed JUST TAKE YOUR WHEELS AND GO! because I'm from AUUUUSTRALIAA! and then they demolished a room in 2.3 seconds flat but could'nt remember whose $50 was under the bed and yelled food alot and Sui-Sui alot and Rhot Rhot Vin even more, to much in fact. Then they came home to hard core reality and ate some lil red weenies (gum we mean). Sometimes they called people in the middle of the night only to swish the phone in the trash but other nights they would surface in a bizarre dream world where everyone was weird but they got used to it so that the wierd looked normal and the normal looked weird it's very scary . . . life, I mean, when you can't tell the difference between a guy and a girl but always keep in mind it's always darkest before it goes completely black even though no one appreciates a good sandwich anymore you can always learn to dread each day at a time and dread each deadline too . . . because one more shot will always make you dance danceteria The newest club is opening up . . . Just call me patsy and I call you Seen . . . or Mike and yes I forgive you and no Charlotte never did . . . Just promise me one thing it won't be crowdy when I get my hair curly . . . and always beware of thin straggly lil fingers that belong to a generic being called STAR . . . and tell Sean I think his friend kisses like a dead-man . . . Please excuse Charnell Ernst on 3/19/84 she had an appt. Thank You. Please excuse Charnell Ernst on 3/20/84 She was too sunburnt to come to school. Thankyou Charlotte Ernst. Is that my underwear . . . I know it is and please take my Holly Hobby night gown off. and have you seen my retainer, bracelets, MA-donna tape, turn it up, roll it down, please push in the lighter and turn right here thank you could you please check under you mom's bed. but dont you wish your a rich man didee dee di dum I think Im on a tangent but I just cant stop myself because it's hectic hectic halp! take me, take me it smells in here get me out because I feel fat and I hate my hair by the way . . . I hate school I hate school only 15 more minutes . . . News flash APATHY strikes Charlotte and Kathy for the 11,569,334 time today . . . but the girls contd. . . on the lonely path untill they ran into Mr. Stress which made them cry and weep and sweep but their ever present tabs did not leak so they just went and ate some peanuttles and had many a stimorol experience and continued being disgusted with food, hair and men with moustaches and men named Giovanni and Chris who lived in and on and around prepositional drawingboards, GAG and they continued on with life in a frantic hectic manner and then . . . they put steves dog in a bag and fell asleep although Kathy was quite sure Charlotte didn't hear a word she said but Charlotte asked how did we get to be friends and Kathy belched and said . . . Sorry no more room. Except/farvel Charlotte TAK, DET har vaeret en dejlig aften and always remember et par herre under-benklæder. GRASHIOUS!

O M E G A

Steve Woodruff — Became a man of many faces. Each day he dressed for a different career. Catherine and Diane — Joined creative talents and formed a hoolu houe troupe. They were an instant success and are now performing internationally for yearbook staffs around the Fresno area. Thanks for your incredible input and entertainment. Shucks. Rick Augustini — His million dollar camera fell out of the window while escaping the police, and has never been the same since. Mike Paluga — Found a date who would help him with the signing pages, but failed to produce and now resides at Happy Dale. There are no dates at Happy Dale. Alex and Karen — Were in constant foreign awe over the exhilarating, action packed adventure Omega provided. Claudia Hess — Ripe testes are sweet to eat. We have to fill 288 pages. Scott Tibbets — O fly. We're at a loss for words. You took em all. Actually write your own. You wrote everything else. . . . Thanks, seriously I mean it. John Kim and Scott Williams — I saw them in 1986 and they were still working on pages 123, 124. Marie Evans — I saw you leaving. . . and you thought I didn't know. . . . Rob Northcut — Rob, Rob pudin' and pie voted king and nearly died. So Omega cried. Suzanne Hussey — She drowned in the swimming section. Workaholic. Karen Kennedy — Berke's double agent. Just kidding. It's O.K. Suzanne Mendelson — Are you going to Omega today??? Well tell Kathy I'm really sick. . . there's lunch club. Evie Pevy — Drove a chevy to the levy, but the levy was dry. Could not find the white suits that Kathy wanted to buy. So she sent a postcard saying why? Bye. (found the suits) Teri Trent + Megan Mc Clory — We ate your sprees. Ravinder — The rain in Spain stays mainly on the plain again, again the rain in Spain stays mainly on the plain again, again. . . Julie Shively and Tasha Zemrus — "Kathy, what about the Jacuzzi picture, and Tom Johnson?" Espit — 30 ways. Andy Taylor — Spent his million dollar fortune he made as a pro photographer on multiflavored Bonnie Bell Chapstick. Britta Sandalman — Had a different pair of slippers for every deadline. Kimba Pate — Was mistaken for a push-me-pull-you at the L.A. Zoo and was detained there for several years. . . thanks kimmy. Charlotte Ernst — The prospect of Fresno was so good (see pgs. 2&3) she moved there, married a steel factory worker who welds door knobs for Ford, had 12 children, lived on a farm, read Good Housekeeping and was either sweeping or weeping last time I saw her. Dick, Jane and Spot — No Kathy their names are Dork, Amy and Rich. Caroline Craven — Reminds me of the song "Ain't Misbehavin'". . . credit to the piano player at the E-Bar. Chooch — Editor of the 80ies or is it woman of the 90ies or is it adolescent of 1983 and 4 and well whatever you may think "If you dont _____ your all kicked off and I MEAN IT THIS TIME! May cloves, Fresno, bizarre pictures from the 1940ies, 6 cupboards full of instant coffee, a sty in the eye, a cramp in the leg, a fly in your nose and a Tab in your bag always be with you or at least in your thoughts, well in your scrapbook? Bless Yoo!
